A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health strength and appetite. H. H. TILDEN.

MOTHERS, READ THIS!

A GREAT BLESSING!!

Worth a Dollar a Drop.

Mothers, are your little ones fretful? And is your patience almost exhausted in vain efforts to please them? I can sympathize with you, and can tell you what will make your little child quiet, give it a good appetite, and procure for it hours of sweet, sound sleep.

My little girl is two and a half years old, and during that time I have not had two consecutive nights' rest. She has been sick a number of times, and no one seemed to know what was troubling her. It was hard to hear her little fretful cry, and not know what to do for her. I doctored her for worms, but it did no good; and I was nearly tired out with sleepless nights and troublesome days.

I heard of the VEGETINE and determined to try it. It has proved a blessing to me and my child.—It has cleansed from her stomach and bowels the sores which kept gathering there; and now she sleeps soundly from her bed-time until very late in the morning, beside a long nap at mid-day. Her appetite is good; and, in fact, she is like a different child. I often say, the true value of this medicine to me is a dollar a drop. Try it. Cleanse the humors from your children's blood while they are young. Try it, and you will join with me in calling it a great blessing. MRS. ELLEN L. CLAPP,
175 Tudor Street.
SOUTH BOSTON, July 10, 1871.

CIRCULATION of the BLOOD.

The circulation of the blood is the life of the body, and its stoppage is death. We are healthy when the blood circulates freely; any interruption preventing its free course is the commencement of disease. "Blood is the life of the flesh." Can we expect to enjoy good health, when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease: and these humors being deposited throughout the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints. No disease can be in the body without first being generated in the blood; and no disease can possibly be in the body, if the blood is pure. It is of great importance to know what medicine will purify and renovate the blood, eradicate the disease, renew vitality, mentally and physically, and instill fresh vigor into all the vital functions of the body. This medicine is the VEGETINE, the great blood-purifier.

It extends its influence into every part of the human organism, commencing with its foundation; correcting diseased action, and restoring vital powers, creating a healthy formation and purification of the blood, driving out disease, and leaving Nature to perform its allotted task.

VEGETINE is composed of Roots, Barks and Herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. Sold by all druggists. M17w4

A Brave Iceland Girl.

Mr. S. E. Waller started for a trip in Iceland in June, 1872. He gives an account of "Six Weeks in the Saddle," in a little volume from which we get an idea of the customs of the people there. The Icelanders are almost inconveniently hospitable. It is difficult to get a farmer, who keeps you for a day or two, to accept pay. Our author seems to have done his best to requite his hosts by making himself amusing. Here we have an instance of native kindness and feminine courage:

In the morning I made a small study, and after a very tolerable meal and many good wishes, we rode off. All went well until we came to the river Markafljot, which happened to be very much flooded. Not liking to attempt to swim under the circumstances, we rode on down the bank for some miles, and fortunately found a house.

Knocking at the door, we asked: "Is the river very deep?" "Very," said a voice from the inside.

"Is there a man who will show us a ford?" we asked again.

"No," was the reply, "both Jon and Olavr are up in the mountains, but one of the girls will do quite as well. Here, Thora, go and show the Englishmen the way."

Immediately an exceedingly handsome young woman ran out, and nodding kindly to me, went around to the back of the house, caught a pony, put a bridle on it, and not taking the trouble to fetch a saddle, vaulted on his bare back, and sitting astride, drove her heels into its sides and galloped off down the river bank as hard as she could go, shouting for us to follow.

We became naturally rather excited at such a display of dash on the part of such a pretty girl, and started off immediately in chase.—But though we did our utmost to catch her, she increased her distance hand over hand. There was no doubt about it; she had as much courage as ever we could boast of, and in point of horsemanship was a hundred yards ahead of either of us.

For about half a mile we rattled along, when suddenly she pulled up short on a sand bank.

"You can cross here," she said, "but you must be careful. Make straight for that rock over there, and when you have reached it, you will be able to see the cairn of stones we built to show the landing place."

"All right," I said. "Good by."

She looked puzzled for a moment, and then said: "I'll come through with you; it will be safer."

"Good gracious, Bjaini, don't let her come," I said; "she is sure to be drowned, and I can't get her out with all those wet clothes on; tell her to go back."

But before I was half way through the sentence, she had urged her horse into the water, and in a moment was twenty yards into the river. Of course we followed as quick as possible, and after a great deal of splashing reached the middle of the flood. "Now," she said, bringing her horse up abreast with mine, and pointing with her whip, "there's the mark." The water was running level with the horses' withers, and it was only by lifting their heads very high that they could keep their noses clear.

"Good by," she said, "God bless you," and before I was quite aware of it, kissed me on the cheek.

I was about to return the compliment, but she was gone, and a few minutes after we saw her, a mere speck in the distance, galloping over the plain.

Kissing in Iceland is a custom similar to shaking hands here. I had thought of it in ordinary situations, but a kiss in the midst of boundless waters was, to say the least of it, strange. It was certainly the wettest one I ever had in my life.

Non-Plussing a Barber.

Persons who visit barber shops would give a premium for a barber who would not insist upon them having their "hair cut," or submitting to a "shampoo" when they only wished to be shaved. A man who called the other day at a tonsorial establishment on Smithfield street succeeded in non-plussing a most persistent knight of the razor. The barber insisted upon giving transient customer a "shampoo," and the T. C. peremptorily demanded why such a request was made. Then a little colloquy ensued something like this:

Barber—Your head's very dirty, sah!"

T. C.—"Well, I know it is, and I want it dirty."

Barber—"Want it dirty! Why, what fah?"

T. C.—"Well, I'm a granger, and I want to have soil on my head!"

GENERAL NEWS.

—A Chicago paper tells of a prominent liquor house in that city which has issued a circular on a postal card, which has been mailed to all the rural towns wherein the saloon crusade is in progress, offering to sell a case of liquors—one dozen bottles for $8, and says, "You can have the case marked 'Soap,' or anything you wish, if you do not wish the 'Paul Pryers' to know what the box contains."

—A recent visitor to the Kellogg legislature was amused to see a stalwart negro rise to make a speech, holding a large piece of pie in his left hand. As the orator proceeded, he would take an occasional bite from the pie, and then continue his remarks. The stranger laughed. The gastronomic statesman was indignant, and demanded his ejection, for conduct disrespectful to the assembly. The idea of disrespect to such an assembly must have been funnier than anything else.

—A lady at Madison, Ohio, thinking pleasantly to surprise one of her boarders, put a gold ring which she had lost, in a pancake, and placed the production on his plate at breakfast. But the boarder bolted the pancake in such large bites that the presence of the ring was not discovered, and now it is lost again.

—They have a good joke on Dr. Egan, of Chicago. He is a great land operator, as well as a most successfull physician. The Doctor prescribed some pills for a lady. She asked how they were to be taken. "A quarter down," said the Doctor, "and the balance in one, two and three years."

—A prayer meeting recently conducted in London by Rev. Newman Hall was opened by the organist with lively selections from "La Fille de Madame Angot;" and the reporter says the conspirators' chorus "rolled through the large chapel with wonderful effec." One would expect as much of opera bouffe in a chapel.

—Thomas M. Cash of Otego has been arrested for circulating a pamphlet containing the evidence in a bastardy suit at Otego. The charge preferred against him was the circulation of obscene matter. Copies of the pamphlet were among the pupils of schools.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

or Diseases of the Throat and Lungs; such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption.

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues.—Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equaled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season.—Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and otherwise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

A Source of Great Anxiety.

My daughter has received great benefit from the use of VEGETINE. Her declining health was a source of great anxiety to all her friends. A few bottles of the VEGETINE restored her health strength and appetite. N. H. TILDEN, Insurance and Real Estate Agent, No. 49 Sears Building,

MOTHERS, READ THIS!

A GREAT BLESSING!!

Worth a Dollar a Drop.

Mothers, are your little ones fretful? And is your patience almost exhausted in vain efforts to please them? I can sympathize with you, and can tell you what will make your little child quiet, give ita good appetite, and procure for it hours of sweet, sound sleep.

My little girl is two and a half years old, and during that time. I have not had two consecutive nights' rest. She has been sick a number of times, and no one seemed to know what was troubling her. It was hard to hear her little fretful cry, and not know what to do for her. I doctored her for worms, but it did no good; and I was nearly tired out with sleepless nights and troublesome days.

I heard of the VEGETINE and determined to try it. It has proved a blessing to me and my child.—It has cleansed from her stomach and bowels the sores which kept gathering there; and now she sleeps soundly from her bed-time until very late in the morning, beside a long nap at mid-day. Her appetite is good; and, in fact, she is like a different child. I often say, the true value of this medicine to me is a dollar a drop. Try it. Cleanse the humors from your children's blood while they are young. Try it, and you will join with me in calling it a great blessing. MRS. ELLEN L. CLAPP, 175 Tudor Street.

SOUTH BOSTON, July 10, 1871.

CIRCULATION of the BLOOD.

The circulation of the blood is the life of the body, and its stoppage is death. We are healthy when the blood circulates freely; any interruption preventing its free course is the commencement of disease. "Blood is the life of the flesh." Can we expect to enjoy good health, when bad or corrupt humors circulate with the blood, causing pain and disease: and these humors being deposited throughout the entire body, produce pimples, eruptions, ulcers, indigestion, costiveness, headache, neuralgia, rheumatism, and numerous other complaints. No disease can be in the body without first being generated in the blood; and no disease can possibly be in the body, if the blood is pure. It is of great importance to know what medicine will purify and renovate the blood, eradicate the disease, renew vitality, mentally and physically, and instill fresh vigor into all the vital functions of the body. This medicine is the VEGETINE, the great blood-purifier.

It extends its influence into every part of the human organism, commencing with its foundation; correcting diseased action, and restoring vital powers, creating a healthy formation and purification of the blood, driving out disease, and leaving Nature to perform its allotted task.

VEGETINE is composed of Roots, Barks and Herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. Sold by all druggists. M17w4

A Brave Iceland Girl.

Mr. S. E. Waller started for a trip in Iceland in June, 1872. He gives an account of "Six Weeks in the Saddle," in a little volume from which we get an idea of the customs of the people there. The Icelanders are almost inconveniently hospitable. It is difficult to get a farmer, who keeps you for a day or two, to accept pay. Our author seems to have done his best to requite his hosts by making himself amusing. Here we have an instance of native kindness and feminine courage:

In the morning I made a small study, and after a very tolerable meal and many good wishes, we rode off. All went well until we came to the river Markafljot, which happened to be very much flooded. Not liking to attempt to swim under the circumstances, we rode on down the bank for some miles, and fortunately found a house.

Knocking at the door, we asked: "Is the river very deep?" "Very," said a voice from the inside.

"Is there a man who will show us a ford?" we asked again.

"No," was the reply, "both Jon and Olavr are up in the mountains, but one of the girls will do quite as well. Here, Thora, go and show the Englishmen the way."

Immediately an exceedingly handsome young woman ran out, and nodding kindly to me, went around to the back of the house, caught a pony, put a bridle on it, and not taking the trouble to fetch a saddle, vaulted on his bare back, and sitting astride, drove her heels into its sides and galloped off down the river bank as hard as she could go, shouting for us to follow.

We became naturally rather excited at such a display of dash on the part of such a pretty girl, and started off immediately in chase.—But though we did our utmost to catch her, she increased her distance hand over hand. There was no doubt about it; she had as much courage as ever we could boast of, and in point of horsemanship was a hundred yards ahead of either of us.

For about half a mile we rattled along, when suddenly she pulled up short on a sand bank.

"You can cross here," she said, "but you must be careful. Make straight for that rock over there, and when you have reached it, you will be able to see the cairn of stones we built to show the landing place."

"All right," I said. "Good by."

She looked puzzled for a moment, and then said: "I'll come through with you; it will be safer."

"Good gracious, Bjaini, don't let her come," I said; "she is sure to be drowned, and I can't get her out with all those wet clothes on; tell her to go back."

But before I was half way through the sentence, she had urged her horse into the water, and in a moment was twenty yards into the river. Of course we followed as quick as possible, and after a great deal of splashing reached the middle of the flood. "Now," she said, bringing her horse up abreast with mine, and pointing with her whip, "there's the mark." The water was running level with the horses' withers, and it was only by lifting their heads very high that they could keep their noses clear.

"Good by," she said, "God bless you," and before I was quite aware of it, kissed me on the cheek.

I was about to return the compliment, but she was gone, and a few minutes after we saw her, a mere speck in the distance, galloping over the plain.

Kissing in Iceland is a custom similar to shaking hands here. I had thought of it in ordinary situations, but a kiss in the midst of boundless waters was, to say the least of it, strange. It was certainly the wettest one I ever had in my life.

Non-Plussing a Barber.

Persons who visit barber shops would give a premium for a barber who would not insist upon them having their "hair cut," or submitting to a "shampoo" when they only wished to be shaved. A man who called the other day at a tonsorial establishment on Smithfield street succeeded in non-plussing a most persistent knight of the razor. The barber insisted upon giving transient customer a "shampoo," and the T. C. peremptorily demanded why such a request was made. Then a little colloquy ensued something like this:

T. C.—"Well, I know it is, and I want it dirty."

Barber—"Want it dirty! Why, what fah?"

T. C.—"Well, I'm a granger, and I want to have soil on my head!"

GENERAL NEWS.

—A Chicago paper tells of a prominent liquor house in that city which has issued a circular on a postal card, which has been mailed to all the rural towns wherein the saloon crusade is in progress, offering to sell a case of liquors—one dozen bottles for $8, and says, "You can have the case marked 'Soap,' or anything you wish, if you do not wish the 'Paul Pryers' to know what the box contains."

—A recent visitor to the Kellogg legislature was amused to see a stalwart negro rise to make a speech, holding a large piece of pie in his left hand. As the orator proceeded, he would take an occasional bite from the pie, and then continue his remarks. The stranger laughed. The gastronomic statesman was indignant, and demanded his ejection, for conduct disrespectful to the assembly. The idea of disrespect to such an assembly must have been funnier than anything else.

—A lady at Madison, Ohio, thinking pleasantly to surprise one of her boarders, put a gold ring which she had lost, in a pancake, and placed the production on his plate at breakfast. But the boarder bolted the pancake in such large bites that the presence of the ring was not discovered, and now it is lost again.

—They have a good joke on Dr. Egan, of Chicago. He is a great land operator, as well as a most successful physician. The Doctor prescribed some pills for a lady. She asked how they were to be taken. "A quarter down," said the Doctor, "and the balance in one, two and three years."

—A prayer meeting recently conducted in London by Rev. Newman Hall was opened by the organist with lively selections from "La Fille de Madame Angot;" and the reporter says the conspirators' chorus "rolled through the large chapel with wonderful effec." One would expect as much of opera bouffe in a chapel.

—Thomas M. Cash of Otego has been arrested for circulating a pamphlet containing the evidence in a bastardy suit at Otego. The charge preferred against him was the circulation of obscene matter. Copies of the pamphlet were among the pupils of schools.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

The few compositions, which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, among not only one but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues.—Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation, or maintained it so long, as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, by a long continued series of marvellous cures, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equaled by any other medicine. It still makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed the Cherry Pectoral has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors, to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded, if the remedy be taken in season.—Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sickness, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and otherwise will not. Keep it by you for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.—Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the fourth day of May, 1854, executed by Cornelius H. Elting and Catherine Ann, his wife, of the town of Westfield, Richmond County, New York, to secure the payment of fifteen hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the fourth day of May, 1855, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's Office of the County of Ulster in Book No. 48 of Mortgages, on page 326 &c., June 22, 1854, at 9 o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Cornelius Oliver duly assigned and transferred said mortgage and the bond accompanying the same to Jane Smith, wife of Gardinier Smith of the town of Hurley, Ulster County, New York, by assignment dated April 27, 1867, and recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's Office in Book No. 89 of Mortgages, on page 532, &c., May 30, 1868, at 10½ o'clock A. And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate and without debts on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis, and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs at law.

And whereas, the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of fifteen hundred and ninety one dollars, and eighty-two cents, to wit: $1,500 of principal and $91.82 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained, and duly recorded as aforesaid; and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Kingston, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, on the 12th day of June, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

Jansen, and on the west by Mountain Road, containing about three hundred and thirty-four acres, be the same more or less, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof.

The Connecticut Election.

The Democrats and Liberals united in Connecticut, and polled at Monday's election 46,062 votes, with five towns to hear from which last year gave them about 650, so their vote will this year be about 47,000. The Republicans cast 39,558; the towns to hear from will probably give them 900, making their vote about 40,400. The Temperance vote is 4,816, with probably enough in the towns to hear from to increase it to 5,000. This shows a gain of about 2,000 to the Democrats and Liberals; 1,200 to the Republicans, while the Temperance vote has just doubled.

The expectation of apathy is thus unfulfilled as compared with last year, and showing no very marked increase in the vote of the party already in possession of the state, the Republicans very nearly maintaining the same relative proportions. But the falling-off from Grant's vote in 1872 is very large indeed, reaching 10,000. While there doesn't appear to be any desertion from Republican to Democratic ranks, there yet is such a decided expression of dissatisfaction with the management of national affairs, that those who run the machine must heed or take the clearly indicated consequences.

A Seal Steal.

Among the immense and unblushing swindles of our day the Alaska Fur Company stands conspicuous. About three years ago an act was lobbied through Congress requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to contract with what is known as the Alaska Fur Company for the lease of two islands acquired by the United States by the Alaska real estate transaction of Mr. Seward, namely, St. Paul and St. George. The contract, which was made in accordance with the act, gave to the company for a term of twenty-one years the sole privilege of taking seals from those islands, not to exceed 100,000 per annum for $2 a head. That an outrageous piece of jobbery was tied up in the scheme was plain enough to all who were cognizant of it at the outset. Some few men made a feeble resistance, but there was too much money or some other form of "influence" in the thing; the committee, having an eye to the future populating of Alaska by white men, would listen to no objections to the bill. A character by the name of Jeffries—Noah L. Jeffries, a professional lobbyist, was the insinuating enchanter who sang sweetly and convincingly into the ears of the committee, and scruples of conscience together with questions of law fell before him like the walls of Jericho before the ram's-horn band of old. Upon the basis of this contract a gigantic monopoly was formed with its head in London and its tail in this country. Enormous dividends are paid to all the stockholders, who have each and all grown rich since the company was organized. Outside of the 100,000 seals furnished annually by this company to the London manufacturers, probably not more than 20,000 seals additional are gathered in a year from the remainder of the world. But a deeper question is suggested by a further revelation of facts. The London manufacturers use up about 300,000 skins annually; where do the extra 180,000 come from? There is only one reasonable answer; they are stolen from Alaska and the islands adjacent in defiance of the terms of the contract. Thus the United States is robbed of not less than $360,000 royalty every year, even at the ruinous rates at which the seals are sold to this big swindling corporation. A few days ago a bill passed the House providing for the sending of an agent to Alaska to look after government interests in connection with the fishery there. Does anybody suppose he will do the company any harm; with a fat fee in prospect for not seeing too much will his eyes do their natural duty? And Dawes, too, he thinks the scheme "works well," for he said so in the House. Is he too, like Butler, attorney for anything?

Sanborn's Testimony.

From what Mr. Sanborn swore to before the Ways and Means Committee on Monday, one inference at least is imperative; either he falsifies the facts or Mr. Richardson does. Sanborn on the investigation showed himself to be a man of coolness, courage and resources. Beyond what his careful and explicit words told, his face and manner indicated little or nothing. He testified with no lack of emphasis and directness that the Secretary did understand the entire nature and limitation of the fifty per cent. contracts which the department made with Sanborn at the time of signing them. At the time of the signing of the first contract Mr. Richardson was acting Secretary in the place of Mr. Boutwell, who was absent from Washington. Sanborn declares repeatedly that there appeared to be no fog whatever overhanging and obscuring the official mind on that occasion. On the contrary the Secretary has recently avowed that he affixed his name to the paper in question as a mere matter of routine business, understanding nothing in relation to it beyond its general meaning. This creates a clear issue of veracity between these two gentlemen. The government theory has been that the Sanborn contracts were, as to their extent and details, a more mysterious thing than Barnum's wonderful "What is It;" coming upon the stage of action after the manner of "Elijah, the Tishbite," without an introduction and without an ancestry. How far the public has believed this cunningly devised fable may be rationally inferred from the comments of the press throughout the country and the tone of late speeches upon the involutions of the department's financial operations. Mr. Sanborn confesses to the adoption of the labor-saving invention of taking a catalogue of the names of all the railroad companies in the country and to describing them as "indebted to the government upon taxes, upon dividends and upon interest paid upon bonds which they have heretofore withheld and refused to pay." Now there are in the United States about 590 railroads subject to taxation for revenue purposes, and out of this number the contractor admits that he had knowledge of only 150 as being in any way in arrears. The lawfulness and morality of this step needs no comment and is a fair sample of the morality of the entire arrangement. Sanborn also concedes what everybody expected, that B. F. Butler was his friend and adviser as to the contracts and helped to make them water-tight; but was exceedingly guarded and cautious in those parts of his testimony which concerned his pseudo Massachusetts attorney, so as not to implicate him. The sum and substance of the whole thing is that there has been a gigantic fraud upon the revenue and that when all Sanborn knows about it has been placed on record several broad reputations will be seriously if not fatally damaged. Not the least or most obscure sufferer will probably be Senator Boutwell, who is as deep in the mud of this business as Richardson is in the mire, if not deeper. Mr. Richardson should, however, resign immediately if he means to do it at all, as the thickening ghost of a possible impeachment is rising in the distance. We shall rejoice if the effluvium proceeding from this cess-pool shall finally disgust the people sufficiently to create a new and much-needed moral sentiment for the latitude of Washington.

One item further in connection with Sanborn's deposition we note with pleasure, inasmuch as it concerns Judge Noah Davis, whose relation to the Jayne matter has laid him open to what must have been very disagreeable criticism to a man in the Judge's position. The great contractor said before the committee that he had approached Judge Davis with a hope to enlist his active co-operation in the swindle but was emphatically repulsed; but had no difficulty in ringing in District Attorney Bliss. We are glad to remark this fact, because it deprives the other accusations against the Judge of a large proportion of their intrinsic credibility.

—The watering-places are fixing prices and things for next summer's harvest.

—The Albany Argus sets Gov. Dix as the Republican candidate for reelection. He can hardly be beaten.

—If Secretary Richardson knows himself, and he thinks he does, he has no intention of resigning—not any.

—Henri Rochefort has read of John Paul, and won't come here by way of California, for fear of being set down as a "California humorist."

—One of the curious habits of wild pigeons is to visit different localities in different years, and the sportsmen are now hunting up their resorts.

—There is a striking analogy between the case of Brother Beecher and the Cure of Santa Cruz. The Frenchmen have acquitted the latter, but he mustn't do it again.

—Madame Bazaine is a heroic woman. The rules of the prison not permitting her to visit her husband, she has actually, at her own request, been imprisoned with him.

—Gideon's Band had a ball in Brooklyn the other night. This is rather a novel way for the historic old warriors to reappear in public.

—American ideas are spreading. A skating rink where parlor skates are used has been opened at Brighton. Some of the skaters are spreading, too.

—Now Barnum is over-doing it! Here he has engaged Mayne Reid, the novelist, to dramatize all his own novels, the great showman is to bring them out. An outraged public should protest.

—Extra-Billy Smith, once Governor of Virginia, having seen his name mentioned for Congress, writes to the editor to "withdraw his name from the crowd." He also advises a change in the time of electing Congressmen, putting it off until the current term of service has ended. It is wrong, he contends, to re-elect a member before having his complete record, while to elect another while he is in service throws his constituents into unpleasant relations with him. Extra-Billy is extra-sound.

OUR ALBANY CORRESPONDENCE.

ALBANY, April 7.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—Clerk Glidden of the Senate begins to doubt the probability of an adjournment as early as May 1st, and surely he ought to be best informed on this subject. If so much doubt exists on the subject in that branch—which is far ahead of the House—we plebeians of the lower house cannot hope to go home until the tenth of May. I wish here to say, that while experience and observation leads me to think the Republican party dificient—generally—in executive ability as compared with their opponents, no blame for the probable length of this session can attach to Speaker Husted. He is a man of superior parliamentary capacity, keen and quick in perception, and in every way qualified to hold the position of Speaker. He dispatches business with extraordinary alacrity, and possesses a magnetism that enables him to preserve perfect order on the floor. It seems strange that where such able men as Hon. Lyman Tremain and Hon. Henry Smith should fail that Mr. Husted succeeds, since no man will contend that Mr. Husted is the peer—intellectually—of Mr. Tremain, our Congressman-at-Large at present from this state. And yet we all know that "Billy" Hitchman of New York—a mere clerk—made a very successful presiding officer. These things would seem to shroud the subject of a man's becoming or making a good Speaker with an inpenetrable mystery. In fact, no man can tell whether this certain man or that one will or will not make a Speaker. The only way to decide that question is to elect a man and let him try it. Two weeks will generally suffice to solve the problem. As long as Alberger has been on the floor, he entirely fails in the chair, and I doubt not the same could be said of many who aspire to that treacherous chair. The man who fails in that position may as well "Go West," or sit down and endeavor to make his mark as a literary man—making the subject of "cremation," for instance, the topic to gain a reputation.

Rapid Transit here won't lie still; the cut in the Graphic of a day or two since is favorably commented upon, especially that part portraying Vanderbilt on high ground looking on—very complacently—the efforts of the horse struggling under the whip of public opinion to extricate himself. Mayor Eastman made two unsuccessful efforts last Monday evening to get his bill made a special order, but the House refused. Wonder who "the boys" are who are paid—as is alleged—$500 at the end of the session, usually, by Vanderbilt & Co. for their services? Probably members of the Third House. Of course nobody would suspect that members of the Legislature would accept such presents. But of one thing I begin to feel disagreeably confident; and that is that Vanderbilt has the House well in hand and he will pull the reins sharp, whenever any measure inimical to his interests comes to the front.

The excitement last evening was over the caucus to nominate a Superintendent of Public Instruction in place of Hon. A. B. Weaver. This subject has attracted much attention and Republican candidates have been very numerous, since no man but a Republican could hope to be elected. It attracted attention because there has been so much talk and so much doubt as to the probable fate of a bill to abolish this office. The bill having passed the Senate, many thought an election might prove an empty honor. Notwithstanding this, however, there were ten men who took their chances, and last night the contestants tried their mettle. There were some very laughable features connected with this joint—Senate and House—caucus. The Democrats met in the Senate chamber at 9 P. M. and nominated Mr. Weaver all harmonious, and the agony there was soon over. I never saw a man proceed to cast a vote with more vim than does Mr. Winfield. He seems to delight in casting a sound Democratic vote as often as possible—and as frequently as an opportunity presents itself, having due regard always for statutory limitation, of course. The Republican caucus met at 9:30 P. M. and the first effort made was by the amorous Goss of Monroe, who moved to cut off all speech-making, assigning as a reason that members had been buzzed enough for weeks, and ought to know all about the various candidates. His motion prevailed amid laughter, as it was known that several members had prepared speeches in their desks in favor of favorites. It hit Senator Selkreg hard, and he became rebellious, as did Batcheller finally, who denounced the policy of "gag law" in a Republican assemblage. It was a dose of medicine often applied by politicians to their opponents of either side; but when it came to be applied to friends, it proved an emetic that members did not care to quietly rest under. The "gag" was removed. Spencer got in a counter blow on Selkreg, who said candidates ought to have their merits presented, to which Spencer replied that the House stood ready to impart any needful information to the Senate that Senators desired, and the passage of the bill to abolish the office demonstrated that the Senate needed light. Besides which, the Senate's action looked as though that body did not desire to participate in the proceedings at all. The Speaker had been active for Herring of Westchester; Keyes of the Express could not get his member to present his name and he was forced to fall back on Mr. Petty of Suffolk, who presented his name in most touching and eloquent terms. Warner Miller of Herkimer stood for his classmate, Mr. Gilmour of Saratoga, while the Rev. Mr. McKean of Ash Grove Methodist Church felt sanguine that his efforts as a lobbyist this winter would prove successful. The Brooklyn delegation and several others voted for Stanton, Archie Bliss backing them. McKean led on the first ballot, your Senator and Snyder going for him, Gilmour came next, followed by Herring, Keyes and Tenney. On the second ballot Gilmour ran up six votes, McKean and Herring lost one each and Keyes gained one. On the third ballot Gilmour gained three votes, McKean losing one, Herring gaining two and Keyes losing two. On the fourth ballot Gilmour gained six, McKean lost three, Herring gained one, Keyes losing two, Stanton running up on the second, third and fourth ballots. The fifth ballot was confined to Gilmour, Stanton, Herring and McKean, Gilmour gaining. On the sixth ballot Gilmour received 42, Stanton 23, and Herring 15, which nominated Gilmour, who was warmly congratulated. Second blood for Warner Miller; he drew first blood on that Academic item, it will be remembered.

In joint session to-day at 12 o'clock Mr. Gilmour was elected to the office, and I learned that Mr. Keyes will be his deputy, although Dr. Beecher, a member, is also a candidate.

Gov. Dix sent to the Senate and House a message to-pay on the subject of "inflation," which was read in both Houses, and referred, in the House, to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions to report to-morrow. The message sharply rebukes Congress for its action. In both Houses the Democrats got the start of their Republican friends, by introducing appropriate resolutions on the subject—in harmony with the message, and the laugh is on the Republicans.

There is much jubilation among the "Democs" here to-day over "the glorious Democratic victory in Connecticut" yesterday, which will insure another Democratic United States Senator in place of ——, off with his head; so much for Buckingham.

Ira Webb of Ellenville was here last week to see the Governor on the subject of a pardon for Lopez, the Ellenville fire-bug of 1871. Lopez is suffering from a fever sore in Sing Sing and amputation of a leg is said to be necessary. Mr. Webb was also here yesterday again, and goes to Sing Sing this morning.—The Governor sends a messenger with him with a pardon for Lopez. Mr. Webb wove a web that extricates young Lopez, who is in no way related to the Cuban filibuster.

Dr. Hunter was in town last evening and also to-day. CYRUS.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Rhode Island Legislature is in a quandary over the question how to prohibit the manufacture of spurious butter without also prohibiting the making of genuine butter.

—Notwithstanding the repeated expostulations of the Glastenbury Town Collector, the Misses Smith still refuse to pay taxes until they are allowed to vote in town meeting, and it is expected that those Alderneys will have to be brought upon the auction stand once more.

—Simpson—"Brown has failed."

Jones—"Has he, indeed?" Well, I'm glad of it. He's worked hard for a good many years, and it's time he began to lay off and take things easy. I suppose he will set up a carriage now, won't he?"

—At Mannistee, Michigan, the ladies have started a reading and coffee room, charging for the coffee the same price as beer. Hundreds of lumberers are waiting at this point, and nearly all of them have abandoned the saloons, which are doing no business, and many of them will be compelled to close.

—Greater preparations than ever before are being made for summer tourists among the White Mountains. The Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad will have its track laid to a point very near the turnpike leading to the "sky railroad," and the Portland and Ogdensburgh road is being graded through the Notch.

—It seems that Washington society has narrowly escaped having to determine the status of a negro senator's white wife. Bruce of Mississippi was engaged to a young woman of Cleveland, Ohio, and would have been married before now had she not died last fall.

—A good lady of Columbus, Ga., was "struck all of a heap" by an old colored woman she met, the other day. She beamed all over her face as she said, in the most approved Georgia style: "Howdy, Aunt Maria?" The aged negress raised herself erect, placed her arms akimbo and remarked, loftily, looking sidewise, "I ain't yer ant, and I ain't yer uncle; I'se yer ekal!"

A Phillipsport correspondent writes that the protracted meeting which has been held there for a period of six weeks has closed. Sunday forty persons were baptized by Rev. O. P. Matthews, and sixty were united with the church on probation. Mr. Mathews has been preaching in this vicinity two years, and during that time two hundred and sixty-one persons have been converted.—Newburgh Telegraph.

—The Tichborne jury have been harshly treated. They had been led to expect two guineas a day for their services through the long and tedious trial, but at the close of the trial they were handed checks for justy ninety-four guineas apiece less than the implied contract guaranteed them; that is, they were paid only a guinea and a half a day. The checks were accepted under protest, and steps will be taken to secure the balance due.

—Government Architect Mullett is a much abused man. If St. Peter himself occupied the position he would not escape calumny. The last accusation against him is made by the New York World, and is to the effect that he is worth $1,000,000. A Republican editor who knows him well retorts that he is only worth $10,000, works very hard, and has a salary of $4,000 a year. He has about four times as much to attend to as the architect of London, and that worthy gets four times the salary. We think Mr. Mullett earns all the money the Government pays him, and have yet to find out that he has stolen any.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 7.

The bill for the relief of the heirs of Asbury Dickens was taken up, and after discussion a motion to table was rejected—yeas 18, nays 30. The bill was then passed—yeas 27, nays 23.

Mr. HOWE of Wisconsin entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of bills on the calendar and passed a number of private bills.

Mr. HAMLIN introduced a bill to relieve ships and vessels from compulsory pilot fees in certain cases. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

At 4:15 the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business. After a short time the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. COX argued at length against inflation of the currency and in favor of a gradual resumption of specie payments. He thought it was not for the minority, but for the majority of Congress, to present a plan for resumption, but suggested that England, after her Napoleonic wars, sought specie payment by a plan which we might copy with profit. It involved, First, that resumption of specie payments must be surely determined; Second, that the time of resumption must be fixed at a day not unreasonably distant; and Third, that the approach to it should be by regular steps, upon which all business interests could circulate.

CANADA.

An Excited Session of Parliament Anticipated.

OTTAWA, April 7.—An excited session is anticipated for to-morrow afternoon. It is not known whether Reil will take his seat, but if he does he will be arrested on leaving the chamber. If he should elect to stand his trial he will be sent to Manitoba to be tried. It is regarded as quite certain that the government will not pardon him. Government officers are taking measures to preserve order to-morrow, and quell any disturbance that may arise.

A PETITION IN FAVOR OF RIEL.

OTTAWA, April 7.—A meeting of over 500 Frenchmen was held at Hull last night, at which it was decided to petition the government on Riel's behalf. Should this not be granted they will advise Riel not to take his seat.

THE INFLATION BILL.

Conkling's Warning Words.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A Washington dispatch says the closing debate in the Senate yesterday on the financial bill, especially the warning words of leading Republican Senators against committing the Republican party to the policy of inflation, has produced a profound impression in Congressional and official circles. The speeches of Conkling and Anthony were clear and pointed, but they had no effect on the ruling majority. Some significance is attached to that of Conkling on account of his intimacy with the President, and not a few believe that he reflects the President's views on this question. Conkling said:

"This is inflation; utter and hurtful spasmodic relief may come from it, temporary and apparent prosperity may come from it, but it takes no heed of the future except to smooth the way to degradation, disaster and distress without necessity or even sore temptation to extenuate it. Such a policy spurns experience of all epochs, tramples on reason and right and violates the pledged faith of the nation as attested by solemn and repeated acts of the American people in Congress assembled, by avowals of every department of the government and by declarations in national convention of the political party which chose the most of us to the seats we hold and chose also the Chief Magistrate, bound by his word against every scheme and device of repudiation and dishonor. I mean so to vote that by my act the record of Congress shall not falter in a double sense and shall not be stained by a trace of bad faith."

MARINE ACCIDENT.

A French Ship Abandoned at Sea.

QUEENSTOWN, April 7—Evening.—The National Line steamer Egypt, which sailed from New York March 28th, arrived this evening. She brings the first officer of the steamer Greece of the same line and a salvage crew rescued from the French Transatlantic Co.'s steamer Europe, which they endeavored to save but were compelled to abandon at sea in a sinking condition after all the passengers and crew on board had been rescued by the Greece. The first officer of the Greece reports that they left Liverpool March 25th and Queenstown the 26th for New York. On the 2d of April we encountered the French steamer Europe from Havre for New York in a sinking condition and took off her passengers and crew, 400 in number. With twenty men I remained on board the Europe in the hope of saving her, while the Greece proceeded on her voyage to New York with the people rescued from the French steamer. On the 4th of April we signalled the steamer Egypt and asked to be taken in tow. The latter consented and hawsers were made fast, but owing to a heavy sea the lines parted and as the water was constantly gaining on us we concluded to abandon the Europe. We signalled the Egypt to take us off and were safely transferred to her and brought to this port. When we left the Europe there was eighteen feet of water in her engine room. The Europe sailed from Havre, March 27th, for New York.

THE KANAWHA CANAL.

Gen. Humphreys, in presenting the report of the engineer board who examined the route of the James River & Kanawha Canal, endorses fully its conclusions, all of which are favorable to the scheme; says it can be built within six years and for $60,000,000; lastly, that in the opinion of the board this route presents extraordinary claims as a measure of relief to the population of the western states in furnishing them for their bulky productions cheap transportation to market and for fostering the commerce of the United States by developing immense mineral resources now neglected.

THE SANBORN INVESTIGATION.

More Evidence from the Contractor.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Sanborn was before the Ways and Means Committee again to-day and was examined at length, but his testimony was in the main unimportant, and brought out but few additional facts. He said that he has now information about uncollected cases not in the possession of the government, and that these cases amount to $4,000,000 or $5,000,000.

The committee finally put the following question to Sanborn, which he promised to answer Thursday morning: State in detail the amount you have paid or agreed to pay in relation to your contract and in its execution with the duties, the sums to whom paid and for what purpose each payment was made.

Other witnesses will be examined to-morrow.

A GENEROUS OFFER.

Gordon L. Burnam of Fifth avenue has offered to present to Central Park a statue of Daniel Webster, if the Park Commissioners will accept his conditions, the statue to be of bronze on a granite pedestal and cost about $30,000. The conditions of the gift are that the statue shall be set up in the centre of the group now on the Mall, those of Burns, Shakespeare and Scott, as he thinks the great American orator worthy of this honor.

ANOTHER BROOKLYN DEFAULTER.

Oliver T. Searing, late Secretary of the Montauk Insurance Company of Brooklyn, who left suddenly for California several days ago, is a defaulter to the amount of $10,000, expended on works of art, curiosities and literary treasures. They have been turned over to the company, which will, however, hardly recover more than half its loss.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 7.—Two steam boilers used in driving the machinery at Musconetcong tunnel on the Easton and Ambery Railroad exploded at 6 o'clock to-night, killing the master mechanic, fireman and helper and wounding the engineer. The boilers were comparitively new and the cause of the explosion is unknown.

SOUTH CAROLINA AFFAIRS.

A Visit to President Grant.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The South Carolina Senators and Representatives, with a delegation from the Republican State Central Committee of that state, called on the President this morning to answer the charges made against them by the delegation from the Tax-Payers' Convention. The delegation made a long statement to the President, based mainly upon documents that they presented, to the effect that taxation was not so burdensome as has been represented, and that they were imposed for the best interests of the people and state. They denied that the other delegation represented almost entirely the tax-paying citizens of South Carolina, and declared that they (the Republican delegation) represented the substantial interests in the state, as they represented the great majority of the people.

The President replied that he regarded their statement as a complete answer to the other side, and he would also say that his reply to the former delegation had in several instances been misrepresented, particularly with regard to his remarks upon the state government of Louisiana and South Carolina, as he had not intended to make any reflection upon them.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Calendar for To-Day.

ALBANY, April 7.—The following is the Court of Appeals calendar for April 8th: Nos. 147, 124, 176, 179, 185, 187, 189, 108.

THE WESTERN CRUSADERS.

Disturbance at Dayton, Ohio.

DAYTON, Ohio, April 7.—Notwithstanding the fact that the Democracy were jubilant over their victory over the crusaders and were in no humor to endorse saloon prayers, the women repaired to the curb stones yesterday and continued their efforts. The crusaders were surrounded at Rapp's saloon by a boisterous crowd rabble and grossly insulted. A knife was brandished, pistols displayed and a riot was so imminent that the Police Commissioners were obliged to interfere and request the women to retire from the street. The crowd used the foulest language and utterly stifled song and prayer by uproarious hooting. The Police Commissioners requested the women not to appear again on the streets during the day, and will request the Mayor to issue a proclamation against the present mode of crusading, because it tends to disturb the public peace. The Democratic triumph is regarded by them as a popular condemnation of crusading, and it is probably ended in Dayton.

LATER.—The Mayor and Police Commissioners have issued a proclamation requiring the police to keep the bands of women away from the saloons, and to enforce the state laws against liquor selling. Both parties are intensely excited.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from the Governor by his Private Secretary in relation to inflation, asking the Legislature to make a firm and emphatic protest against it.

Resolutions endorsing the message and directing it to be forwarded to the Senators and Representatives of this state were offered by Messrs. GANSON and WOOD, and after some discussion Mr. LORD moved that the message be at once transmitted to Washington, accompanied with the following resolution:

Resolved, That the message of his Excellency the Governor hereto subjoined is approved, and is fully indorsed, and expresses the sentiments of this Legislature.

Mr. WOODIN moved that all the foregoing resolutions, together with the message, be referred to the Finance Committee. Carried.

SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The hour of twelve o'clock having arrived the Senate proceeded to the Assembly Chamber to elect in joint session with the Assembly a Superintendent of Public Instruction in place of A. B. Weaver, whose term of office expires to-day.

On the return of the Senate to their own chamber the President announced that NEIL GILMOUR, of Saratoga county, had been elected.

Mr. COLE offered a resolution to print 2,000 copies of the annual report of the Commissioners of Fisheries for the use of the Commissioners. Referred to the Printing Committee.

Recess until 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. WOOD, from the Finance Committee, to whom was referred the Governor's message relative to inflation of the currency and resolutions, reported the following:

WHEREAS, His Excellency the Governor of the state of New York has this day transmitted to the Legislature a special message relating to inflation of the currency by the general government, calling attention to the disastrous effect of such action upon the welfare and prosperity of the country; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That we fully approve and heartily endorse the sentiments expressed in such message, and in view thereof and of the act of Congress approved March 18, 1869, which affirmed that the faith of the United States was solemnly pledged to the payment in coin of all obligations of the United States not bearing interest, known as United States notes, and that the United States also solemnly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for the redemption of United States notes in coin, and as this pledge has been repeatedly given, it is the judgment of the Legislature of the state of New York that it is the duty of the administration of the general government at Washington and of Congress to stay the pernicous and ruinous policy of increasing the volume of irredeemable paper currency.

And be it further

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), that our Senators and Representatives in Congress be and they are hereby requested to resist by all the efforts in their power any inflation of the currency through the further issue of circulating notes by the government or by national banks and that they be and are also hereby requested respectively to promote by all proper measures an early return to specie payments.

And be it further Resolved (if the Assembly concur), that His Excellency the Governor be requested to transmit these resolutions, with a copy of his message appended, to the President of the United States and to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The resolutions were adopted, all voting in the affirmative except Senators Johnson, Madden and Middleton.

ASSEMBLY.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Governor, by the hands of Col. De Kay, his Private Secretary, transmitted a message in relation to inflation.

In connection with the message, Mr. WEED offered concurrent resolutions, the same as those offered in the Senate by Mr. GANSON.

Mr. ALVORD said he concurred fully in the sentiments of the admirable message of the Governor. He moved that the message and resolution of Mr. Weed be referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. WEED suggested that if such reference were made it would be with instructions to report to-morrow morning. The suggestion was agreed to, and the resolution adopted.

ELECTION OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the SPEAKER announced the order of business to be the election of Superintendent of Public Instruction in place of Abram B. Weaver, whose term of office expires.

The Senate and Assembly then met in joint convention and proceeded to the election of Superintendent of Public Instruction, the ballot resulting as follows:

Neil Gilmour........................87
Abram B. Weaver...................51

The LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR announced that NEIL GILMOUR having received a majority of all the votes cast was duly elected Superintendent of Public Instruction.

BILLS PASSED.

To amend Newburgh city charter.

To amend the act for the incorporation of villages.

To amend the game laws.

EVENING SESSION.

The House reassembled at 7:30 P. M. and took up in Committee of the Whole the bill to give children elementary education by requiring parents and guardians to send children under their charge to school fourteen weeks each year.

Mr. ALVORD spoke in opposition to the bill and Messrs. C. S. SPENCER and FARRAR in favor of it.

Mr. ALVORD moved to amend so as to have it apply only to such places as a majority of the people desire it. This was lost, and the bill ordered to a third reading.

Mr. BATCHELLER, from the Ways and Means Committee, to which was referred the Governor's message of to-day against inflation, reported resolutions approving the sentiments of the message and requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to promote an early return to specie payments and resist inflation of the currency.

On motion of Mr. BATCHELLER the report was tabled, with a view to receiving the Senate's resolutions on the same subject, which are exactly similar, and adopting them instead.

The Senate's resolutions were then read and there was a sharp debate between Batcheller and Beebe as to the course of their respective parties, when Alvord, after, as he said, "pouring the oil of the independent party on the troubled waters," moved the previous question, which was ordered and the resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Mr. DAWES reported the Canal Commissioners bill amended so as to provide for the appointment of a paymaster.

At 10:30 o'clock the House adjourned.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

"I thank you for the opportunity of expressing my opinion of the great value of the 'NEW AMERICAN' and 'ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA.' I own the work and have it with me here, and am in the habit of consulting it every day to my very great advantage. It is most admirable. J. L. MOTLEY, "U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James."

"Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1869.

I consider the New American Cyclopaedia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopaedia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."

"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.

I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it. CHARLES SUMNER."

"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude. JAMES PARTON."

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM — PURELY — DR. WALKER'S — CALIFORNIA — ALCOHOL — EUREKA — VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

To-Night—Annual Conclave of Rondout Commandery, K. T., at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Aretas Lodge No. 172 I. O. O. F. in Odd Fellows' Hall.

Various Society and Firemen's meetings, as announced in other columns.

CITY NOTES.

—A mocking-bird keeps the Mansion House full of music.

—Workmen are engaged in repairing the horse car track.

—On Tuesday 6 canal boats laden with 750 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware and Hudson canal.

—"An April rain of smiles and tears" on Tuesday, tho' there were considerable more tears than smiles.

—The iron gate and fence in front of St. Mary's Church is being repainted and the wall painted.

—The largest craft laden at this port this season thus far is a three-masted schooner stuffed full of coal at Kingston Point docks.

—John P. Totter has disposed of the bowling alley to a man named Schmidt from Port Jervis.

—The lower portion of the city is now suffering from an epidemic of show. Besides "the opera" every night, two other shows are billed for this week.

—The Methodist pastors left last night for Conference, which sits in St. John's Church in New York this week and next, commencing to-day.

—There seems to be an unusual number of horses with very miserable tails about the city this spring. Has the price of chignons gone skyward?

—By a misprint we gave the number of the first boat to arrive from Honesdale as 305, when it should be 309. We make the correction because we don't want boat 305 to carry of 309's honors.

—The magnificent aurora last night was admired by all who happened to notice it. A peculiar feature was the arch which completely spanned the heavens from east to west for several minutes.

—A very diminutive violinist, a child of sunny Italy, was molested and made afraid on Tuesday noon by a horde of dirty little boys from some of the public schools, who may be good in fractions, but who can't say "peas" to save them from a whipping.

—A down town clerk says one morning he was ordered to hoe up the dust in front of the store; the next morning he had to shovel snow from the sidewalk, and the third morning he rescued a lady's overshoe from the mud—now he is curious about the next change of weather.

—Prof. Francis Krause, the well-known musician, has been engaged to play the organ in the St. Jospeh's Church in this city. Prof. Krause is one of the best musicians in Ulster county, and no doubt will give satisfaction in his new calling. He will commence his labors the first Sunday in May.

—J. S. Burhans is putting up a new building for a store on East Front street, during which operation he closes his old old store at six o'clock in the evening, much to the disgust of the "sitters," who number about twenty-five, and have no place to go. We advise them to try the coal office for awhile, or the lumber loft, until Mr. B. can get his building in shape.

—The club rooms in upper Kingston are the favorite resort of all the gentlemen who want the evening news. It's very nice to have a quiet place to read the "latest," an arm chair to repose in, a Brussels carpet under foot and a twenty-five cent Havana between one's teeth. Somehow or other the most disagreeable reports of the stock market fall with a lighter hand, when read in such a situation. No liquor being sold in this establishment makes it exceedingly popular during these trying times for the dealers in the exhilarating draught.

The April Circuit.

Justice Boardman will preside at the April Circuit, in place of Judge Westbrook, who was set down for this term. Judge Boardman is one of the best Judges in the state.

Barge Purchased.

Messrs. S. D. Coykendall and John Wolfer have purchased of an Albany concern the barge J. R. Silliman, about 600 tons burthen. The barge, after receiving new keelsons and having an open deck, will be used to carry limestone from the quarries at South Rondout of the purchasers to points on the river. The limestone quarried by Coykendall & Wolfer at South Rondout is of a superior quality, and the largely increasing demand for it in the market calls for increased means of transportation.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamer Norwich—Schooner J. B. Allen, barges J. L. Patchin, Washburne, boats Peck and Church, Sunswick, Mary, Bluestone, Walter Scott, Bella, H. C. Kruse, Fannie Deveney, 5 coal boats to New York.

Steamer Baltic—Schooner Elias Moore, barges Winfield to Athens, David Terry to Catskill, Patten to Baltimore, boats Cornet to Baltimore, George Swan, Alligator, No. 1720, Plymouth to Albany.

Up tows from New York:

Canal Notes.

The Dyberry is a canal boat of very superior model and fitted up with much taste and comfort for the use of the officers and Board of Directors of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company. The boat has been sent to Honesdale to be repaired and refitted, preparatory to carrying the officers and Directors of the Company over the line of the canal from tide-water to Honesdale in May next.

The Troy Times says: "The 'spark arrester,' with which some experiments were recently made on Green Island, has been laid aside, for the present at any rate. It is said the results of the experiments were satisfactory, but the inventor and the officers of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company were not able to agree upon the terms by which the Delaware & Hudson Company could apply it to all their locomotives. Rumor says the officers demanded a half interest in the invention."

An Early Visit to the Overlook.

A Freeman reporter has had a trip to the Overlook Mountain House, and found, though the wind blew a gale from this city to Woodstock—so hard, in fact, that the wagon half the time seemed to be lifted from the ground, on the road up the mountain and at the house it was as quiet as on a summer's day. This certainly is very surprising, and can only be accounted for by supposing that the violence of the wind is broken by the numerous peaks in the rear of the Overlook, so when it reaches the house its power is almost entirely gone. Neither was the weather as cold at the house by several degrees as on the road. The building stands facing toward the south, and whenever the sun shines it beats strongly on the front piazza, making it very comfortable, while it may be freezing cold at the foot of the mountain. The mountain at present is bare of all foliage, or signs of it. Every point stands out bold and prominent, and the view, so far as regards the clearness of the atmosphere, can be had at a great advantage over that of the summer months. The scene is not so pleasant a one, however, as the whole country has the same rough, barren look, without the tint of foliage, the waving grain, or green grass to relieve its nakedness. During the visit of our reporter a great change was made in the scene by a fall of snow, that made the landscape look as though it had been covered with a garment of cotton. Mr. Lasher has made a number of improvements to the house and grounds that will add much to the beauty of this already celebrated summer resort. A visit at this time of the year to the "Devil's Kitchen" doesn't find that place perhaps as warm as one might suppose from the name, and the "Lover's Cave" seems to be exceedingly well adapted to chill anything but the hottest sentiments. However, cakes of ice are very agreeable in summer, and we hope a few glaciers may stay there to give joy to the heated frame of the New Yorker when he makes his annual tour of the mountain. The visit of President Grant to the house last summer has given it a number of new places of interest, one of which is "President's Rock," and another "The President's Tree." On the rock, General Grant sat and smoked a cigar, all the while, no doubt, inwardly swearing at the parasites that clung to his coat tails; while as regards the tree, he made that famous by straddling a limb, at the great risk of tearing his trousers, all the while coolly smoking his cigar, showing that wonderful nerve and courage he has ever been noted for. We must not forget Bruin, who may now be considered to be a stable sort of ornament (no joke intended); he has grown nicely, and no doubt will be the admiration of all the lions who visit the place during the coming season.

The roads are in excellent condition, the mountain abounds with game—and take it all in all, it is about as pleasant as any place at this time of the year. Mr. Lasher and his family have been living there very cosily during the winter, and have every expectation of having a full house during the coming season. Our best wishes are with them.

Comitatus de Lunatico Inquirendo.

The court room was an interesting place for loungers Tuesday, to attend to the proceedings before John E. VanEtten, counsellor at law, James O. VanHovenburgh and Cornelius D. Westbrook, physicians, commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court to inquire by a jury of the unsoundness of mind of Augustus Schoonmaker, a well-known resident of the upper part of the city. Mr. Schoonmaker is an old man, about 75 years of age, and it is claimed that he has become deprived of his reason so he is unable to govern himself or manage his affairs. A petition to that effect was made by Julia S. Schoonmaker, his daughter, who also says he is the owner of a valuable store, house and lot on the north side of North Front street, which yields the annual rental of $528, and which he refused to sell sometime ago for $6,000, but has made a contract since that time to sell it to one George Maer for the sum of $3,000, to the great detriment of himself and family. That he made this bargain secretly, without disclosing the terms of the contract to his children, thereby showing evidences of an unsound mind. This petition is followed by an affidavit of the family physician, Jesse Myer, who swears that the old gentleman is affected with softening of the brain, and he is now, and has been for the past two years, so far deprived of his understanding as to be unfit to manage his business. An affidavit of George Elmendorf is also attached in which he claims Mr. S. is insane because he is in the habit of frequently repeating questions, and for the other reasons given in the petition and other affidavit. On these papers Judge T. R. Westbrook issued a commission in the nature of a writ de lunatico inquirendo, appointing the before-named gentlemen as commissioners to inquire into the lunacy of the said Augustus Schoonmaker, at the same time restraining him from executing a deed for the premises to Maer until the proceedings are concluded. A jury was duly summoned Tuesday, and the trial begun. The evidence given so far tends to show that at times the mind of Mr. Schoonmaker wandered, and that he was at such times very feeble in intellect. Proof was also given as to the facts stated in the petition and affidavits.

Midland Management.

The Rome Sentinel criticises the management of the New York Midland as follows: We are told that a crisis approaches in the affairs of the Midland Railroad Company. Since September last, the earnings of the road have not been sufficient to pay the salaries of the employes, much less to meet other running expenses. The receivers propose to abandon the road in despair. The total stoppage of business on the road would be so disastrous that the first mortgage bondholders will hardly allow it if they can prevent it. The financial condition of the road, bad as it is, is not to be wondered at if the entire line has been as shiftlessly managed as the Central and Northern Divisions. No road will ever be so managed and earn running expenses. Run the New York Central in this fashion and another spring would see the green grass growing above the tracks.

Church of The Holy Spirit.

This certifies that the annual meeting for the election of Wardens and Vestrymen for the Church of the Holy Spirit at Rondout, in the city of Kingston and in the Diocese of New York, was duly held in conformity with the act passed May 9, 1868. On Easter Monday, April 6th, 1874, in the Church of the Holy Spirit, the following Wardens and Vestrymen were elected for the ensuing year:

WARDENS—Hiram Roosa, C. V. Quilliard.

VESTRYMEN—James L. Van Deusen, John McEntee, Palmer A. Canfield, William Johnston, George C. Smith, M. D., F. H. Griffiths, E. W. Knapp, William H. DeGarmo.

There being no further business the Vestry adjourned to Friday evening, 8 o'clock, to meet in Dr. Smith's office. Attest:—

HIRAM ROOSA,
Clerk of the Vestry.

The Coal Breaker.

During the past winter the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company have caused to be erected on their island dock in this city, and just above the upper engine house on the dock, a coal breaker for the converting of the immense piles of steamer lump coal, for which there is a comparatively small demand, into coal of smaller sizes and for which the demand is extensive. The work on the coal breaker was complete on Tuesday, and it will in all probability be put in operation to-day, Wednesday. The machinery for the breaker was constructed in Scranton, and some delay has been experienced in making the connections properly, but now it is all hunky and will crack coal till you can't rest.

Sunday School Concert.

The concert given by the Rondout M. E. Sunday School and Choir was a complete success, for which much credit is due to Mr. G. R. Adams and Rev. G. C. Esray, who drilled the singers. The singing of the school was very fine, and that of the choir superior, the soprano of Miss Mauterstock being especially good. Mrs. Dean's infant class contributed largely to the entertainment, giving "Little Travelers," with a solo by Effie Moyle, a recitation by Jessie Bell Hudler, a speech by Le-Roy Fero, and an oration by Ralphie Dean. Little Fero's was tip-top, and Ralphie's inimitable, bringing down the house, especially his bow, which was very comprehensive and impressive. Jessie was of course perfect in her part, and excited the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. "Katy Did and Katy Didn't," by Jessie and Gracie Edmonds and May Fowks, was also well done. In the speaking line Harry Esray gave a short effort, and Eldridge Esray the very best declamation that has been delivered in any school entertainment in Rondout in years. Eldridge also sang "The Old Stone Jug" in character, and in a style that brought down the house. There were a couple of songs by a class of young ladies, and three by a quartette composed of G. R. Adams, C. W. McKown, Frank Tripp and Austin Thompson, the voices blending finely and the singing being excellent and loudly applauded. The Choir sang two anthems with good effect, and also "The Bell" and "Away to the Woods," the former of which was, we thought, the best rendered by them. Miss Minnie Coen sang very sweetly in the solo "Fold me, Mother," and also in her duet with Mary Aldrich's fine alto. The semi-chorus in "Victory, Victory," was given with rare vigor. The intermission was occupied with an instrumental piece by Miss Gussie Hayes, who showed skill in handling the piano. Misses Whittaker and Moyle gave a fine duet, and Mr. and Miss Mauterstock, C. W. McKown and Miss Moyle a quartette which was vigorously applauded. The solo by Miss Edick was sung with much taste, and the one by Gracie Edmonds was very sweet indeed. Little Miss Campbell also sang the Battle Song exceedingly well, and Master Sickler in "We will praise Him" reached notes seldom touched by a boy of his age. The audience seemed highly pleased with the entire entertainment, which was arranged with taste and skill.

Attachments Against Judge George.

The Poughkeepsie News says: "There were several Newburgh lawyers in this city on Saturday, having business before Judge Barnard. Hon. Thomas George, ex-County Judge of Orange county, was to have appeared in response to an order from the Court to show cause why he should not pay over $1,100 placed in his care by a lady living at Plattekill, Ulster county. The money had been in his hands for some years, and he had been applied to several times to pay it over, but had not acceded to the demand. Of course Judge George did not appear, and upon motion of C. Frank Brown, Esq., attorney for the lady who placed the money in his hands, an attachment upon the person of the Judge was issued by the Court. Eugene A. Brewster, Esq., of Newburgh, appeared before Judge Barnard in behalf of other claimants who have lost by the departed Judge, and procured attachments upon personal property which he has left.—The whereabouts of Mr. George are not known. Some say that he is in Virginia, and others state that he is on his way to Europe."

Recorder's Court.

Adam Heiz was arrested on Saturday on the charge of having stolen a quantity of freight from the Wallkill Valley depot. He was brought before the Recorder on Monday, when he plead guilty and settled by paying the sum of $35. The prisoner's wife said their son had committed the theft, and the old gentleman, to save the boy, plead guilty. The articles were a keg of whiskey and about $8 worth of matches.

James Crook on Saturday last entered the office of Andrew Bostwick on Pine street and commenced violently abusing the proprietor, and threatening to do him all sorts of injury. Bostwick ordered Crook out, and upon Crook refusing to go, Bostwick, with the aid of his man, after a struggle threw Crook out. Crook then vented his abuse on the building—threw stones at it, at the same time pleasantly telling Mr. B. he intended to burn up the whole establishment. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and on Tuesday morning he was sent by the Recorder to the penitentiary for six months.

—To an uptown saloon came, yesterday, a well dressed, matronly appearing lady. She walked in very deliberately, laid down her muff, went down into her pocket, and took out a pair of spectacles. The proprietor behind the bar looked uneasy, expecting, as he did, a prayer to follow; but instead the lady, after adjusting her glass, took out a small junk bottle, and called for a pint of whiskey. The proprietor breathed freer after that.—Hudson Register.

—A local note in the Troy Times says Nelson Lewis of that city recently made a wager that he could shoot a turkey at the great distance of twelve hundred yards, or sixty feet over two-thirds of a mile. The trial came off a few days ago, a target representing the turkey was put up and Mr. Lewis won the wager on the fifteenth shot, he having still two shots to spare, according to the terms of agreement. The barrel of the rifle used weighed but eleven and one-half pounds.

The Connecticut Election.

The Democrats and Liberals united in Connecticut, and polled at Monday's election 46,062 votes, with five towns to hear from which last year gave them about 650, so their vote will this year be about 47,000. The Republicans cast 39,558; the towns to hear from will probably give them 900, making their vote about 40,400. The Temperance vote is 4,816, with probably enough in the towns to hear from to increase it to 5,000. This shows a gain of about 2,000 to the Democrats and Liberals, 1,200 to the Republicans, while the Temperance vote has just doubled.

The expectation of apathy is thus unfulfilled as compared with last year, and showing no very marked increase in the vote of the party already in possession of the state, the Republicans very nearly maintaining the same relative proportions. But the falling-off from Grant's vote in 1872 is very large indeed, reaching 10,000. While there doesn't appear to be any desertion from Republican to Democratic ranks, there yet is such a decided expression of dissatisfaction with the management of national affairs, that those who run the machine must heed or take the clearly indicated consequences.

A Seal Steal.

Among the immense and unblushing swindles of our day the Alaska Fur Company stands conspicuous. About three years ago an act was lobbied through Congress requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to contract with what is known as the Alaska Fur Company for the lease of two islands acquired by the United States by the Alaska real estate transaction of Mr. Seward, namely, St. Paul and St. George. The contract, which was made in accordance with the act, gave to the company for a term of twenty-one years the sole privilege of taking seals from those islands, not to exceed 100,000 per annum for $2 a head. That an outrageous piece of jobbery was tied up in the scheme was plain enough to all who were cognizant of it at the outset. Some few men made a feeble resistance, but there was too much money or some other form of "influence" in the thing; the committee, having an eye to the future populating of Alaska by white men, would listen to no objections to the bill. A character by the name of Jeffries—Noah L. Jeffries, a professional lobbyist, was the insinuating enchanter who sang sweetly and convincingly into the ears of the committee, and scruples of conscience together with questions of law fell before him like the walls of Jericho before the ram's-horn band of old. Upon the basis of this contract a gigantic monopoly was formed with its head in London and its tail in this country. Enormous dividends are paid to all the stockholders, who have each and all grown rich since the company was organized. Outside of the 100,000 seals furnished annually by this company to the London manufacturers, probably not more than 20,000 seals additional are gathered in a year from the remainder of the world. But a deeper question is suggested by a further revelation of facts. The London manufacturers use up about 300,000 skins annually; where do the extra 180,000 come from? There is only one reasonable answer; they are stolen from Alaska and the islands adjacent in defiance of the terms of the contract. Thus the United States is robbed of not less than $360,000 royalty every year, even at the ruinous rates at which the seals are sold to this big swindling corporation. A few days ago a bill passed the House providing for the sending of an agent to Alaska to look after government interests in connection with the fishery there. Does anybody suppose he will do the company any harm; with a fat fee in prospect for not seeing too much will his eyes do their natural duty? And Dawes, too, he thinks the scheme "works well," for he said so in the House. Is he too, like Butler, attorney for anything?

Sanborn's Testimony.

From what Mr. Sanborn swore to before the Ways and Means Committee on Monday, one inference at least is imperative; either he falsifies the facts or Mr. Richardson does. Sanborn on the investigation showed himself to be a man of coolness, courage and resources. Beyond what his careful and explicit words told, his face and manner indicated little or nothing. He testified with no lack of emphasis and directness that the Secretary did understand the entire nature and limitation of the fifty per cent. contracts which the department made with Sanborn at the time of signing them. At the time of the signing of the first contract Mr. Richardson was acting Secretary in the place of Mr. Boutwell, who was absent from Washington. Sanborn declares repeatedly that there appeared to be no fog whatever overhanging and obscuring the official mind on that occasion. On the contrary the Secretary has recently avowed that he affixed his name to the paper in question as a mere matter of routine business, understanding nothing in relation to it beyond its general meaning. This creates a clear issue of veracity between these two gentlemen. The government theory has been that the Sanborn contracts were, as to their extent and details, a more mysterious thing than Barnum's wonderful "What is It;" coming upon the stage of action after the manner of "El jah, the Tishbite," without an introduction and without an ancestry. How far the public has believed this cunningly devised fable may be rationally inferred from the comments of the press throughout the country and the tone of late speeches upon the involutions of the department's financial operations. Mr. Sanborn confesses to the adoption of the labor-saving invention of taking a catalogue of the names of all the railroad companies in the country and to describing them as "indebted to the government upon taxes, upon dividends and upon interest paid upon bonds which they have heretofore withheld and refused to pay." Now there are in the United States about 590 railroads subject to taxation for revenue purposes, and out of this number the contractor admits that he had knowledge of only 150 as being in any way in arrears. The lawfulness and morality of this step needs no comment and is a fair sample of the morality of the entire arrangement. Sanborn also concedes what everybody expected, that B. F. Butler was his friend and adviser as to the contracts and helped to make them water-tight; but was exceedingly guarded and cautious in those parts of his testimony which concerned his pseudo Massachusetts attorney, so as not to implicate him. The sum and substance of the whole thing is that there has been a gigantic fraud upon the revenue and that when all Sanborn knows about it has been placed on record several broad reputations will be seriously if not fatally damaged. Not the least or most obscure sufferer will probably be Senator Boutwell, who is as deep in the mud of this business as Richardson is in the mire, if not deeper. Mr. Richardson should, however, resign immediately if he means to do it at all, as the thickening ghost of a possible impeachment is rising in the distance. We shall rejoice if the effluvium proceeding from this cess-pool shall finally disgust the people sufficiently to create a new and much-needed moral sentiment for the latitude of Washington.

One item further in connection with Sanborn's deposition we note with pleasure, inasmuch as it concerns Judge Noah Davis, whose relation to the Jayne matter has laid him open to what must have been very disagreeable criticism to a man in the Judge's position. The great contractor said before the committee that he had approached Judge Davis with a hope to enlist his active co-operation in the swindle but was emphatically repulsed; but had no difficulty in ringing in District Attorney Bliss. We are glad to remark this fact, because it deprives the other accusations against the Judge of a large proportion of their intrinsic credibility.

OUR ALBANY CORRESPONDENCE.

ALBANY, April 7.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—Clerk Glidden of the Senate begins to doubt the probability of an adjournment as early as May 1st, and surely he ought to be best informed on this subject. If so much doubt exists on the subject in that branch—which is far ahead of the House—we plebeians of the lower house cannot hope to go home until the tenth of May. I wish here to say, that while experience and observation leads me to think the Republican party dificient—generally—in executive ability as compared with their opponents, no blame for the probable length of this session can attach to Speaker Husted. He is a man of superior parliamentary capacity, keen and quick in perception, and in every way qualified to hold the position of Speaker. He dispatches business with extraordinary alacrity, and possesses a magnetism that enables him to preserve perfect order on the floor. It seems strange that where such able men as Hon. Lyman Tremain and Hon. Henry Smith should fail that Mr. Husted succeeds, since no man will contend that Mr. Husted is the peer—intellectually—of Mr. Tremain, our Congressman-at-Large at present from this state. And yet we all know that "Billy" Hitchman of New York—a mere clerk—made a very successful presiding officer. These things would seem to shroud the subject of a man's becoming or making a good Speaker with an inpenetrable mystery. In fact, no man can tell whether this certain man or that one will or will not make a Speaker. The only way to decide that question is to elect a man and let him try it. Two weeks will generally suffice to solve the problem. As long as Alberger has been on the floor, he entirely fails in the chair, and I doubt not the same could be said of many who aspire to that treacherous chair. The man who fails in that position may as well "Go West," or sit down and endeavor to make his mark as a literary man—making the subject of "cremation," for instance, the topic to gain a reputation.

Rapid Transit here won't lie still; the cut in the Graphic of a day or two since is favorably commented upon, especially that part portraying Vanderbilt on high ground looking on—very complacently—the efforts of the horse struggling under the whip of public opinion to extricate himself. Mayor Eastman made two unsuccessful efforts last Monday evening to get his bill made a special order, but the House refused. Wonder who "the boys" are who are paid—as is alleged—$500 at the end of the session, usually, by Vanderbilt & Co. for their services? Probably members of the Third House. Of course nobody would suspect that members of the Legislature would accept such presents. But of one thing I begin to feel disagreeably confident; and that is that Vanderbilt has the House well in hand and he will pull the reins sharp, whenever any measure inimical to his interests comes to the front.

The excitement last evening was over the caucus to nominate a Superintendent of Public Instruction in place of Hon. A. B. Weaver. This subject has attracted much attention and Republican candidates have been very numerous, since no man but a Republican could hope to be elected. It attracted attention because there has been so much talk and so much doubt as to the probable fate of a bill to abolish this office. The bill having passed the Senate, many thought an election might prove an empty honor. Notwithstanding this, however, there were ten men who took their chances, and last night the contestants tried their mettle. There were some very laughable features connected with this joint—Senate and House—caucus. The Democrats met in the Senate chamber at 9 P. M. and nominated Mr. Weaver all harmonious, and the agony there was soon over. I never saw a man proceed to cast a vote with more vim than does Mr. Winfield. He seems to delight in casting a sound Democratic vote as often as possible—and as frequently as an opportunity presents itself, having due regard always for statutory limitation, of course. The Republican caucus met at 9:30 P. M. and the first effort made was by the amorous Goss of Monroe, who moved to cut off all speech-making, assigning as a reason that members had been buzzed enough for weeks, and ought to know all about the various candidates. His motion prevailed amid laughter, as it was known that several members had prepared speeches in their desks in favor of favorites. It hit Senator Selkreg hard, and he became rebellious, as did Batcheller finally, who denounced the policy of "gag law" in a Republican assemblage. It was a dose of medicine often applied by politicians to their opponents of either side; but when it came to be applied to friends, it proved an emetic that members did not care to quietly rest under. The "gag" was removed. Spencer got in a counter blow on Selkreg, who said candidates ought to have their merits presented, to which Spencer replied that the House stood ready to impart any needful information to the Senate that Senators desired, and the passage of the bill to abolish the office demonstrated that the Senate needed light. Besides which, the Senate's action looked as though that body did not desire to participate in the proceedings a all. The Speaker had been active for Herring of Westchester; Keyes of the Express could not get his member to present his name and he was forced to fall back on Mr. Petty of Suffolk, who presented his name in most touching and eloquent terms. Warner Miller of Herkimer stood for his classmate, Mr. Gilmour of Saratoga, while the Rev. Mr. McKean of Ash Grove Methodist Church felt sanguine that his efforts as a lobbyist this winter would prove successful. The Brooklyn delegation and several others voted for Stanton, Archie Bliss backing them. McKean led on the first ballot, your Senator and Snyder going for him, Gilmour came next, followed by Herring, Keyes and Tenney. On the second ballot Gilmour ran up six votes, McKean and Herring lost one each and Keyes gained one. On the third ballot Gilmour gained three votes, McKean losing one, Herring gaining two and Keyes losing two. On the fourth ballot Gilmour gained six, McKean lost three, Herring gained one, Keyes losing two, Stanton running up on the second, third and fourth ballots. The fifth ballot was confined to Gilmour, Stanton, Herring and McKean, Gilmour gaining. On the sixth ballot Gilmour received 42, Stanton 23, and Herring 15, which nominated Gilmour, who was warmly congratulated. Second blood for Warner Miller; he drew first blood on that Academic item, it will be remembered.

In joint session to-day at 12 o'clock Mr. Gilmour was elected to the office, and I learned that Mr. Keyes will be his deputy, although Dr. Beecher, a member, is also a candidate.

Gov. Dix sent to the Senate and House a message to-pay on the subject of "inflation," which was read in both Houses, and referred, in the House, to the Committee on Ways and Means with instructions to report to-morrow. The message sharply rebukes Congress for its action. In both House s the Democrats got the start of their Republican friends, by introducing appropriate resolutions on the subject—in harmony with the message, and the laugh is on the Republicans.

There is much jubilation among the "Democs" here to-day over "the glorious Democratic victory in Connecticut" yesterday, which will insure another Democratic United States Senator in place of ——, off with his head; so much for Buckingham.

Ira Webb of Ellenville was here last week to see the Governor on the subject of a pardon for Lopez, the Ellenville fire-bug of 1871. Lopez is suffering from a fever sore in Sing Sing and amputation of a leg is said to be necessary. Mr. Webb was also here yesterday again, and goes to Sing Sing this morning.—The Governor sends a messenger with him with a pardon for Lopez. Mr. Webb wove a web that extricates young Lopez, who is in no way related to the Cuban filibuster.

Dr. Hunter was in town last evening and also to-day. CYRUS.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The Rhode Island Legislature is in a quandary over the question how to prohibit the manufacture of spurious butter without also prohibiting the making of genuine butter.

—Notwithstanding the repeated expostulations of the Glastenbury Town Collector, the Misses Smith still refuse to pay taxes until they are allowed to vote in town meeting, and it is expected that those Alderneys will have to be brought upon the auction stand once more.

—Simpson—"Brown has failed."

Jones—"Has he, indeed?" Well, I'm glad of it. He's worked hard for a good many years, and it's time he began to lay off and take things easy. I suppose he will set up a carriage now, won't he?"

—At Mannistee, Michigan, the ladies have started a reading and coffee room, charging for the coffee the same price as beer. Hundreds of lumberers are waiting at this point, and nearly all of them have abandoned the saloons, which are doing no business, and many of them will be compelled to close.

—Greater preparations than ever before are being made for summer tourists among the White Mountains. The Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad will have its track laid to a point very near the turnpike leading to the "sky railroad," and the Portland and Ogdensburgh road is being graded through the Notch.

—It seems that Washington society has narrowly escaped having to determine the status of a negro senator's white wife. Bruce of Mississippi was engaged to a young woman of Cleveland, Ohio, and would have been married before now had she not died last fall.

—A good lady of Columbus, Ga., was "struck all of a heap" by an old colored woman she met, the other day. She beamed all over her face as she said, in the most approved Georgia style: "Howdy, Aunt Maria?" The aged negress raised herself erect, placed her arms akimbo and remarked, loftily, looking sidewise, "I ain't yer ant, and I ain't yer uncle; I'se yer ekal!"

A Phillipsport correspondent writes that the protracted meeting which has been held there for a period of six weeks has closed. Sunday forty persons were baptized by Rev. O. P. Matthews, and sixty were united with the church on probation. Mr. Mathews has been preaching in this vicinity two years, and during that time two hundred and sixty-one persons have been converted.—Newburgh Telegraph.

—The Tichborne jury have been harshly treated. They had been led to expect two guineas a day for their services through the long and tedious trial, but at the close of the trial they were handed checks for justy ninety-four guineas apiece less than the implied contract guaranteed them; that is, they were paid only a guinea and a half a day. The checks were accepted under protest, and steps will be taken to secure the balance due.

—Government Architect Mullett is a much abused man. If St. Peter himself occupied the position he would not escape calumny. The last accusation against him is made by the New York World, and is to the effect that he is worth $1,000,000. A Republican editor who knows him well retorts that he is only worth $10,000, works very hard, and has a salary of $4,000 a year. He has about four times as much to attend to as the architect of London, and that worthy gets four times the salary. We think Mr. Mullett earns all the money the Government pays him, and have yet to find out that he has stolen any.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 7.

The bill for the relief of the heirs of Asbury Dickens was taken up, and after discussion a motion to table was rejected—yeas 18, nays 30. The bill was then passed—yeas 27, nays 23.

Mr. HOWE of Wisconsin entered a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of bills on the calendar and passed a number of private bills.

Mr. HAMLIN introduced a bill to relieve ships and vessels from compulsory pilot fees in certain cases. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

At 4:15 the Senate proceeded to the consideration of executive business. After a short time the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. COX argued at length against inflation of the currency and in favor of a gradual resumption of specie payments. He thought it was not for the minority, but for the majority of Congress, to present a plan for resumption, but suggested that England, after her Napoleonic wars, sought specie payment by a plan which we might copy with profit. It involved, First, that resumption of specie payments must be surely determined; Second, that the time of resumption must be fixed at a day not unreasonably distant; and Third, that the approach to it should be by regular steps, upon which all business interests could circulate.

CANADA.

An Excited Session of Parliament Anticipated.

OTTAWA, April 7.—An excited session is anticipated for to-morrow afternoon. It is not known whether Reil will take his seat, but if he does he will be arrested on leaving the chamber. If he should elect to stand his trial he will be sent to Manitoba to be tried. It is regarded as quite certain that the government will not pardon him. Government officers are taking measures to preserve order to-morrow, and quell any disturbance that may arise.

A PETITION IN FAVOR OF RIEL.

OTTAWA, April 7.—A meeting of over 500 Frenchmen was held at Hull last night, at which it was decided to petition the government on Riel's behalf. Should this not be granted they will advise Riel not to take his seat.

THE INFLATION BILL.

Conkling's Warning Words.

NEW YORK, April 7.—A Washington dispatch says the closing debate in the Senate yesterday on the financial bill, especially the warning words of leading Republican Senators against committing the Republican party to the policy of inflation, has produced a profound impression in Congressional and official circles. The speeches of Conkling and Anthony were clear and pointed, but they had no effect on the ruling majority. Some significance is attached to that of Conkling on account of his intimacy with the President, and not a few believe that he reflects the President's views on this question. Conkling said:

"This is inflation; utter and hurtful spasmodic relief may come from it, temporary and apparent prosperity may come from it, but it takes no heed of the future except to smooth the way to degradation, disaster and distress without necessity or even sore temptation to extenuate it. Such a policy spurns experience of all epochs, tramples on reason and right and violates the pledged faith of the nation as attested by solemn and repeated acts of the American people in Congress assembled, by avowals of every department of the government and by declarations in national convention of the political party which chose the most of us to the seats we hold and chose also the Chief Magistrate, bound by his word against every scheme and device of repudiation and dishonor. I mean so to vote that by my act the record of Congress shall not falter in a double sense and shall not be stained by a trace of bad faith."

MARINE ACCIDENT.

A French Ship Abandoned at Sea.

QUEENSTOWN, April 7—Evening.—The National Line steamer Egypt, which sailed from New York March 28th, arrived this evening. She brings the first officer of the steamer Greece of the same line and a salvage crew rescued from the French Transatlantic Co.'s steamer Europe, which they endeavored to save but were compelled to abandon at sea in a sinking condition after all the passengers and crew on board had been rescued by the Greece. The first officer of the Greece reports that they left Liverpool March 25th and Queenstown the 26th for New York. On the 2d of April we encountered the French steamer Europe from Havre for New York in a sinking condition and took off her passengers and crew, 400 in number. With twenty men I remained on board the Europe in the hope of saving her, while the Greece proceeded on her voyage to New York with the people rescued from the French steamer. On the 4th of April we signalled the steamer Egypt and asked to be taken in tow. The latter consented and hawsers were made fast, but owing to a heavy sea the lines parted and as the water was constantly gaining on us we concluded to abandon the Europe. We signalled the Egypt to take us off and were safely transferred to her and brought to this port. When we left the Europe there was eighteen feet of water in her engine room. The Europe sailed from Havre, March 27th, for New York.

THE KANAWHA CANAL.

Gen. Humphreys, in presenting the report of the engineer boa... who examined the route of the James River & Kanawha Canal, endorses fully its conclusions, all of which are favorable to the scheme; says it can be built within six years and for $60,000,000; lastly, that in the opinion of the board this route presents extraordinary claims as a measure of relief to the population of the western states in furnishing them for their bulky productions cheap transportation to market and for fostering the commerce of the United States by developing immense mineral resources now neglected.

THE SANBORN INVESTIGATION.

More Evidence from the Contractor.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Sanborn was before the Ways and Means Committee again to-day and was examined at length, but his testimony was in the main unimportant, and brought out but few additional facts. He said that he has now information about uncollected cases not in the possession of the government, and that these cases amount to $4,000,000 or $5,000,000.

The committee finally put the following question to Sanborn, which he promised to answer Thursday morning: State in detail the amount you have paid or agreed to pay in relation to your contract and in its execution with the duties, the sums to whom paid and for what purpose each payment was made.

Other witnesses will be examined to-morrow.

A GENEROUS OFFER.

Gordon L. Burnam of Fifth avenue has offered to present to Central Park a statue of Daniel Webster, if the Park Commissioners will accept his conditions, the statue to be of bronze on a granite pedestal and cost about $30,000. The conditions of the gift are that the statue shall be set up in the centre of the group now on the Mall, those of Burns, Shakespeare and Scott, as he thinks the great American orator worthy of this honor.

ANOTHER BROOKLYN DEFAULTER.

Oliver T. Searing, late Secretary of the Montauk Insurance Company of Brooklyn, who left suddenly for California several days ago, is a defaulter to the amount of $10,000, expended on works of art, curiosities and literary treasures. They have been turned over to the company, which will, however, hardly recover more than half its loss.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed.

SOUTH BETHLEHEM, Pa., April 7.—Two steam boilers used in driving the machinery at Musconetcong tunnel on the Easton and Ambery Railroad exploded at 6 o'clock to-night, killing the master mechanic, fireman and helper and wounding the engineer. The boilers were comparitively new and the cause of the explosion is unknown.

SOUTH CAROLINA AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The South Carolina Senators and Representatives, with a delegation from the Republican State Central Committee of that state, called on the President this morning to answer the charges made against them by the delegation from the Tax-Payers' Convention. The delegation made a long statement to the President, based mainly upon documents that they presented, to the effect that taxation was not so burdensome as has been represented, and that they were imposed for the best interests of the people and state. They denied that the other delegation represented almost entirely the tax-paying citizens of South Carolina, and declared that they (the Republican delegation) represented the substantial interests in the state, as they represented the great majority of the people.

The President replied that he regarded their statement as a complete answer to the other side, and he would also say that his reply to the former delegation had in several instances been misrepresented, particularly with regard to his remarks upon the state government of Louisiana and South Carolina, as he had not intended to make any reflection upon them.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Calendar for To-Day.

ALBANY, April 7.—The following is the Court of Appeals calendar for April 8th: Nos. 147, 124, 176, 179, 185, 187, 189, 108.

THE WESTERN CRUSADERS.

Disturbance at Dayton, Ohio.

DAYTON, Ohio, April 7.—Notwithstanding the fact that the Democracy were jubilant over their victory over the crusaders and were in no humor to endorse saloon prayers, the women repaired to the curb stones yesterday and continued their efforts. The crusaders were surrounded at Rapp's saloon by a boisterous crowd rabble and grossly insulted. A knife was brandished, pistols displayed and a riot was so imminent that the Police Commissioners were obliged to interfere and request the women to retire from the street. The crowd used the foulest language and utterly stifled song and prayer by uproarious hooting. The Police Commissioners requested the women not to appear again on the streets during the day, and will request the Mayor to issue a proclamation against the present mode of crusading, because it tends to disturb the public peace. The Democratic triumph is regarded by them as a popular condemnation of crusading, and it is probably ended in Dayton.

LATER.—The Mayor and Police Commissioners have issued a proclamation requiring the police to keep the bands of women away from the saloons, and to enforce the state laws against liquor selling. Both parties are intensely excited.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from the Governor by his Private Secretary in relation to inflation, asking the Legislature to make a firm and emphatic protest against it.

Resolutions endorsing the message and directing it to be forwarded to the Senators and Representatives of this state were offered by Messrs. GANSON and WOOD, and after some discussion Mr. LORD moved that the message be at once transmitted to Washington, accompanied with the following resolution:

Resolved, That the message of his Excellency the Governor hereto subjoined is approved, and is fully indorsed, and expresses the sentiments of this Legislature.

Mr. WOODIN moved that all the foregoing resolutions, together with the message, be referred to the Finance Committee. Carried.

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. WOOD, from the Finance Committee, to whom was referred the Governor's message relative to inflation of the currency and resolutions, reported the following:

WHEREAS, His Excellency the Governor of the state of New York has this day transmitted to the Legislature a special message relating to inflation of the currency by the general government, calling attention to the disastrous effect of such action upon the welfare and prosperity of the country; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That we fully approve and heartily endorse the sentiments expressed in such message, and in view thereof and of the act of Congress approved March 18, 1869, which affirmed that the faith of the United States was solemnly pledged to the payment in coin of all obligations of the United States not bearing interest, known as United States notes, and that the United States also solemnly pledged its faith to make provision at the earliest practicable period for the redemption of United States notes in coin, and as this pledge has been repeatedly given, it is the judgment of the Legislature of the state of New York that it is the duty of the admistration of the general government at Washington and of Congress to stay the pernicous and ruinous policy of increasing the volume of irredeemable paper currency.

And be it further

Resolved (if the Assembly concur), that our Senators and Representatives in Congress be and they are hereby requested to resist by all the efforts in their power any inflation of the currency through the further issue of circulating notes by the government or by national banks and that they be and are also hereby requested respectively to promote by all proper measures an early return to specie payments.

And be it further Resolved (if the Assembly concur), that His Excellency the Governor be requested to transmit these resolutions, with a copy of his message appended, to the President of the United States and to each of our Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The resolutions were adopted, all voting in the affirmative except Senators Johnson, Madden and Middleton.

ASSEMBLY.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Governor, by the hands of Col. De Kay, his Private Secretary, transmitted a message in relation to inflation.

In connection with the message, Mr. WEED offered concurrent resolutions, the same as those offered in the Senate by Mr. GANSON.

Mr. ALVORD said he concurred fully in the sentiments of the admirable message of the Governor. He moved that the message and resolution of Mr. Weed be referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

Mr. WEED suggested that if such reference were made it would be with instructions to report to-morrow morning. The suggestion was agreed to, and the resolution adopted.

ELECTION OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the SPEAKER announced the order of business to be the election of Superintendent of Public Instruction in place of Abram B. Weaver, whose term of office expires.

The Senate and Assembly then met in joint convention and proceeded to the election of Superintendent of Public Instruction, the ballot resulting as follows:

Neil Gilmour........................87
Abram B. Weaver.....................51

The LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR announced that NEIL GILMOUR having received a majority of all the votes cast was duly elected Superintendent of Public Instruction.

BILLS PASSED.

To amend Newburgh city charter.

To amend the act for the incorporation of villages.

To amend the game laws.

EVENING SESSION.

The House reassembled at 7:30 P. M. and took up in Committee of the Whole the bill to give children elementary education by requiring parents and guardians to send children under their charge to school fourteen weeks each year.

Mr. ALVORD spoke in opposition to the bill and Messrs. C. S. SPENCER and FARRAR in favor of it.

Mr. ALVORD moved to amend so as to have it apply only to such places as a majority of the people desire it. This was lost, and the bill ordered to a third reading.

Mr. BATCHELLER, from the Ways and Means Committee, to which was referred the Governor's message of to-day against inflation, reported resolutions approving the sentiments of the message and requesting our Senators and Representatives in Congress to promote an early return to specie payments and resist inflation of the currency.

On motion of Mr. BATCHELLER the report was tabled, with a view to receiving the Senate's resolutions on the same subject, which are exactly similar, and adopting them instead.

The Senate's resolutions were then read and there was a sharp debate between Batcheller and Beebe as to the course of their respective parties, when Alvord, after, as he said, "pouring the oil of the independent party on the troubled waters," moved the previous question, which was ordered and the resolutions were adopted unanimously.

Mr. DAWES reported the Canal Commissioners bill amended so as to provide for the the appointment of a paymaster.

At 10:30 o'clock the House adjourned.

OPINIONS OF DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS.

"No. 17 Arlington St., London, England. Jan. 6. 1870.

"I thank you for the opportunity of expressing my opinion of the great value of the 'NEW AMERICAN' and 'ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA.' I own the work and have it with me here, and am in the habit of consulting it every day to my very great advantage. It is most admirable. J. L. MOTLEY, "U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James."

"Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1869.

I consider the New American Cyclopaedia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopaedia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."

"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.

I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it. CHARLES SUMNER."

"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude. JAMES PARTON."

"Tribune Office, N. Y. City, Oct. 30, 1869.

MY DEAR SIR: I have used the 'New American Cyclopaedia' since the first volume came into existence, and deem it the best work of the kind in print. Yours, &c., HORACE GREELEY."

"North Shore, S. I., N. Y., Oct. 19, 1869.

Appletons' Cyclopaedia is unquestionably the best popular manual of general reference for an American. GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS.

"Washington, Nov. 12, 1869.

DEAR SIR: I quite agree with Mr. Curtis, that the 'New American Cyclopaedia' is 'the best manual of general reference for an American.' The annual continuations are also of great value. S. P. CHASE.

NOTICE.—DISSOLUTION OF Partnership. The firm of Longyear & Shultis, liverymen uptown, is this day dissolved. The accounts have been left with Mr. M Longyear for collection. The business will be continued by the new firm, Van Gaasbeek & Shultis, composed of Harrison Van Gaasbeek and Philip Shultis.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE * FREE FROM ALCOHOL * DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

CITY NOTES.

—A mocking-bird keeps the Mansion House full of music.

—Workmen are engaged in repairing the horse car track.

—"An April rain of smiles and tears" on Tuesday, tho' there were considerable more tears than smiles.

—The iron gate and fence in front of St. Mary's Church is being repainted and the wall painted.

—The largest craft laden at this port this season thus far is a three-masted schooner stuffed full of coal at Kingston Point docks.

—John P. Totter has disposed of the bowling alley to a man named Schmidt from Port Jervis.

—The lower portion of the city is now suffering from an epidemic of show. Besides "the opera" every night, two other shows are billed for this week.

—The Methodist pastors left last night for Conference, which sits in St. John's Church in New York this week and next, commencing to-day.

—There seems to be an unusual number of horses with very miserable tails about the city this spring. Has the price of chignons gone sky ward?

—By a misprint we gave the number of the first boat to arrive from Honesdale as 305, when it should be 309. We make the correction because we don't want boat 305 to carry of 309's honors.

—The magnificent aurora last night was admired by all who happened to notice it. A peculiar feature was the arch which completely spanned the heavens from east to west for several minutes.

—A very diminutive violinist, a child of sunny Italy, was molested and made afraid on Tuesday noon by a horde of dirty little boys from some of the public schools, who may be good in fractions, but who can't say "peas" to save them from a whipping.

—A down town clerk says one morning he was ordered to hoe up the dust in front of the store; the next morning he had to shovel snow from the sidewalk, and the third morning he rescued a lady's overshoe from the mud—now he is curious about the next change of weather.

—Prof. Francis Krause, the well-known musician, has been engaged to play the organ in the St. Jospeh's Church in this city. Prof. Krause is one of the best musicians in Ulster county, and no doubt will give satisfaction in his new calling. He will commence his labors the first Sunday in May.

—J. S. Burhans is putting up a new building for a store on East Front street, during which operation he closes his old old store at six o'clock in the evening, much to the disgust of the "sitters," who number about twenty-five, and have no place to go. We advise them to try the coal office for awhile, or the lumber loft, until Mr. B. can get his building in shape.

—The club rooms in upper Kingston are the favorite resort of all the gentlemen who want the evening news. It's very nice to have a quiet place to read the "latest," an arm chair to repose in, a Brussels carpet under foot and a twenty-five cent Havana between one's teeth. Somehow or other the most disagreeable reports of the stock market fall with a lighter hand, when read in such a situation. No liquor being sold in this establishment makes it exceedingly popular during these trying times for the dealers in the exhilarating draught.

The April Circuit.

Justice Boardman will preside at the April Circuit, in place of Judge Westbrook, who was set down for this term. Judge Boardman is one of the best Judges in the state.

Barge Purchased.

Messrs. S. D. Coykendall and John Wolfer have purchased of an Albany concern the barge J. R. Silliman, about 600 tons burthen. The barge, after receiving new keelsons and having an open deck, will be used to carry limestone from the quarries at South Rondout of the purchasers to points on the river. The limestone quarried by Coykendall & Wolfer at South Rondout is of a superior quality, and the largely increasing demand for it in the market calls for increased means of transportation.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamer Norwich—Schooner J. B. Allen, barges J. L. Patchin, Washburne, boats Peck and Church, Sunswick, Mary, Bluestone, Walter Scott, Bella, H. C. Kruse, Fannie Deveney, 5 coal boats to New York.

Steamer Baltic—Schooner Elias Moore, barges Winfield to Athens, David Terry to Catskill, Patten to Baltimore, boats Cornet to Baltimore, George Swan, Alligator, No. 1720, Plymouth to Albany.

Up tows from New York:

Canal Notes.

The Dyberry is a canal boat of very superior model and fitted up with much taste and comfort for the use of the officers and Board of Directors of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company. The boat has been sent to Honesdale to be repaired and refitted, preparatory to carrying the officers and Directors of the Company over the line of the canal from tide-water to Honesdale in May next.

The Troy Times says: "The 'spark arrester,' with which some experiments were recently made on Green Island, has been laid aside, for the present at any rate. It is said the results of the experiments were satisfactory, but the inventor and the officers of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company were not able to agree upon the terms by which the Delaware & Hudson Company could apply it to all their locomotives. Rumor says the officers demanded a half interest in the invention."

An Early Visit to the Overlook.

A Freeman reporter has had a trip to the Overlook Mountain House, and found, though the wind blew a gale from this city to Woodstock—so hard, in fact, that the wagon half the time seemed to be lifted from the ground, on the road up the mountain and at the house it was as quiet as on a summer's day. This certainly is very surprising, and can only be accounted for by supposing that the violence of the wind is broken by the numerous peaks in the rear of the Overlook, so when it reaches the house its power is almost entirely gone. Neither was the weather as cold at the house by several degrees as on the road. The building stands facing toward the south, and whenever the sun shines it beats strongly on the front piazza, making it very comfortable, while it may be freezing cold at the foot of the mountain. The mountain at present is bare of all foliage, or signs of it. Every point stands out bold and prominent, and the view, so far as regards the clearness of the atmosphere, can be had at a great advantage over that of the summer months. The scene is not so pleasant a one, however, as the whole country has the same rough, barren look, without the tint of foliage, the waving grain, or green grass to relieve its nakedness. During the visit of our reporter a great change was made in the scene by a fall of snow, that made the landscape look as though it had been covered with a garment of cotton. Mr. Lasher has made a number of improvements to the house and grounds that will add much to the beauty of this already celebrated summer resort. A visit at this time of the year to the "Devil's Kitchen" doesn't find that place perhaps as warm as one might suppose from the name, and the "Lover's Cave" seems to be exceedingly well adapted to chill anything but the hottest sentiments. However, cakes of ice are very agreeable in summer, and we hope a few glaciers may stay there to give joy to the heated frame of the New Yorker when he makes his annual tour of the mountain. The visit of President Grant to the house last summer has given it a number of new places of interest, one of which is "President's Rock," and another "The President's Tree." On the rock, General Grant sat and smoked a cigar, all the while, no doubt, inwardly swearing at the parasites that clung to his coat tails; while as regards the tree, he made that famous by straddling a limb, at the great risk of tearing his trousers, all the while coolly smoking his cigar, showing that wonderful nerve and courage he has ever been noted for. We must not forget Bruin, who may now be considered to be a stable sort of ornament (no joke intended); he has grown nicely, and no doubt will be the admiration of all the lions who visit the place during the coming season.

The roads are in excellent condition, the mountain abounds with game—and take it all in all, it is about as pleasant as any place at this time of the year. Mr. Lasher and his family have been living there very cosily during the winter, and have every expectation of having a full house during the coming season. Our best wishes are with them.

Comitatus de Lunatico Inquirendo.

The court room was an interesting place for loungers Tuesday, to attend to the proceedings before John E. VanEtten, counsellor at law, James O. VanHovenburgh and Cornelius D. Westbrook, physicians, commissioners appointed by the Supreme Court to inquire by a jury of the unsoundness of mind of Augustus Schoonmaker, a well-known resident of the upper part of the city. Mr. Schoonmaker is an old man, about 75 years of age, and it is claimed that he has become deprived of his reason so he is unable to govern himself or manage his affairs. A petition to that effect was made by Julia S. Schoonmaker, his daughter, who also says he is the owner of a valuable store, house and lot on the north side of North Front street, which yields the annual rental of $528, and which he refused to sell sometime ago for $6,000, but has made a contract since that time to sell it to one George Maer for the sum of $3,000, to the great detriment of himself and family. That he made this bargain secretly, without disclosing the terms of the contract to his children, thereby showing evidences of an unsound mind. This petition is followed by an affidavit of the family physician, Jesse Myer, who swears that the old gentleman is affected with softening of the brain, and he is now, and has been for the past two years, so far deprived of his understanding as to be unfit to manage his business. An affidavit of George Elmendorf is also attached in which he claims Mr. S. is insane because he is in the habit of frequently repeating questions, and for the other reasons given in the petition and other affidavit. On these papers Judge T. R. Westbrook issued a commission in the nature of a writ de lunatico inquirendo, appointing the before-named gentlemen as commissioners to inquire into the lunacy of the said Augustus Schoonmaker, at the same time restraining him from executing a deed for the premises to Maer until the proceedings are concluded. A jury was duly summoned Tuesday, and the trial begun. The evidence given so far tends to show that at times the mind of Mr. Schoonmaker wandered, and that he was at such times very feeble in intellect. Proof was also given as to the facts stated in the petition and affidavits.

Midland Management.

The Rome Sentinel criticises the management of the New York Midland as follows: We are told that a crisis approaches in the affairs of the Midland Railroad Company. Since September last, the earnings of the road have not been sufficient to pay the salaries of the employes, much less to meet other running expenses. The receivers propose to abandon the road in despair. The total stoppage of business on the road would be so disastrous that the first mortgage bondholders will hardly allow it if they can prevent it. The financial condition of the road, bad as it is, is not to be wondered at if the entire line has been as shiftlessly managed as the Central and Northern Divisions. No road will ever be so managed and earn running expenses. Run the New York Central in this fashion and another spring would see the green grass growing above the tracks.

Church of The Holy Spirit.

This certifies that the annual meeting for the election of Wardens and Vestrymen for the Church of the Holy Spirit at Rondout, in the city of Kingston and in the Diocese of New York, was duly held in conformity with the act passed May 9, 1868. On Easter Monday, April 6th, 1874, in the Church of the Holy Spirit, the following Wardens and Vestrymen were elected for the ensuing year:

WARDENS—Hiram Roosa, C. V. Quilliard.

There being no further business the Vestry adjourned to Friday evening, 8 o'clock, to meet in Dr. Smith's office. Attest:—

HIRAM ROOSA,
Clerk of the Vestry.

The Coal Breaker.

During the past winter the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company have caused to be erected on their island dock in this city, and just above the upper engine house on the dock, a coal breaker for the converting of the immense piles of steamer lump coal, for which there is a comparatively small demand, into coal of smaller sizes and for which the demand is extensive. The work on the coal breaker was complete on Tuesday, and it will in all probability be put in operation to-day, Wednesday. The machinery for the breaker was constructed in Scranton, and some delay has been experienced in making the connections properly, but now it is all hunky and will crack coal till you can't rest.

Sunday School Concert.

The concert given by the Rondout M. E. Sunday School and Choir was a complete success, for which much credit is due to Mr. G. R. Adams and Rev. G. C. Esray, who drilled the singers. The singing of the school was very fine, and that of the choir superior, the soprano of Miss Mauterstock being especially good. Mrs. Dean's infant class contributed largely to the entertainment, giving "Little Travelers," with a solo by Effie Moyle, a recitation by Jessie Bell Hudler, a speech by Le-Roy Fero, and an oration by Ralphie Dean. Little Fero's was tip-top, and Ralphie's inimitable, bringing down the house, especially his bow, which was very comprehensive and impressive. Jessie was of course perfect in her part, and excited the audience to a high pitch of enthusiasm. "Katy Did and Katy Didn't," by Jessie and Gracie Edmonds and May Fowks, was also well done. In the speaking line Harry Esray gave a short effort, and Eldridge Esray the very best declamation that has been delivered in any school entertainment in Rondout in years. Eldridge also sang "The Old Stone Jug" in character, and in a style that brought down the house. There were a couple of songs by a class of young ladies, and three by a quartette composed of G. R. Adams, C. W. McKown, Frank Tripp and Austin Thompson, the voices blending finely and the singing being excellent and loudly applauded. The Choir sang two anthems with good effect, and also "The Bell" and "Away to the Woods," the former of which was, we thought, the best rendered by them. Miss Minnie Coen sang very sweetly in the solo "Fold me, Mother," and also in her duet with Mary Aldrich's fine alto. The semi-chorus in "Victory, Victory," was given with rare vigor. The intermission was occupied with an instrumental piece by Miss Gussie Hayes, who showed skill in handling the piano. Misses Whittaker and Moyle gave a fine duet, and Mr. and Miss Mauterstock, C. W. McKown and Miss Moyle a quartette which was vigorously applauded. The solo by Miss Edick was sung with much taste, and the one by Gracie Edmonds was very sweet indeed. Little Miss Campbell also sang the Battle Song exceedingly well, and Master Sickler in "We will praise Him" reached notes seldom touched by a boy of his age. The audience seemed highly pleased with the entire entertainment, which was arranged with taste and skill.

Attachments Against Judge George.

The Poughkeepsie News says: "There were several Newburgh lawyers in this city on Saturday, having business before Judge Barnard. Hon. Thomas George, ex-County Judge of Orange county, was to have appeared in response to an order from the Court to show cause why he should not pay over $1,100 placed in his care by a lady living at Plattekill, Ulster county. The money had been in his hands for some years, and he had been applied to several times to pay it over, but had not acceded to the demand. Of course Judge George did not appear, and upon motion of C. Frank Brown, Esq., attorney for the lady who placed the money in his hands, an attachment upon the person of the Judge was issued by the Court. Eugene A. Brewster, Esq., of Newburgh, appeared before Judge Barnard in behalf of other claimants who have lost by the departed Judge, and procured attachments upon personal property which he has left.—The whereabouts of Mr. George are not known. Some say that he is in Virginia, and others state that he is on his way to Europe."

Recorder's Court.

Adam Heiz was arrested on Saturday on the charge of having stolen a quantity of freight from the Wallkill Valley depot. He was brought before the Recorder on Monday, when he plead guilty and settled by paying the sum of $35. The prisoner's wife said their son had committed the theft, and the old gentleman, to save the boy, plead guilty. The articles were a keg of whiskey and about $8 worth of matches.

James Crook on Saturday last entered the office of Andrew Bostwick on Pine street and commenced violently abusing the proprietor, and threatening to do him all sorts of injury. Bostwick ordered Crook out, and upon Crook refusing to go, Bostwick, with the aid of his man, after a struggle threw Crook out. Crook then vented his abuse on the building—threw stones at it, at the same time pleasantly telling Mr. B. he intended to burn up the whole establishment. A warrant was issued for his arrest, and on Tuesday morning he was sent by the Recorder to the penitentiary for six months.

—Complaints have been made in Albany against parties who sweep nails into the street, which get into horses' feet. The complaints are very sensible.

—Three Poughkeepsie speculators have sued their New York brokers for $3,000, which they claim was taken from them in the shape of illegal interest during the panic.

—A woman traveling on the a baby of nine months and a boy of two years on the seat of a railroad car. She caught up with them the next train.

They walked two miles to Sidney Plains, where they took the Midland cars to Lyon Brook Bridge, and engaged lodgings. —The Newburgh Telegraph says a large number of people of that city are afflicted with diseases of different kinds. The principal diseases afflicting children are the measles and scarlet fever. Adults are afflicted with lung complaint. One of our physicians a day or two ago visited the sick bed of forty-six different patients under his care.

—To an uptown saloon came, yesterday, a well dressed, matronly appearing lady. She walked in very deliberately, laid down her muff, went down into her pocket, and took out a pair of spectacles. The proprietor behind the bar looked uneasy, expecting, as he did, a prayer to follow; but instead the lady, after adjusting her glass, took out a small junk bottle, and called for a pint of whiskey. The proprietor breathed freer after that.—Hudson Register.

—A local note in the Troy Times says Nelson Lewis of that city recently made a wager that he could shoot a turkey at the great distance of twelve hundred yards, or sixty feet over two-thirds of a mile. The trial came off a few days ago, a target representing the turkey was put up and Mr. Lewis won the wager on the fifteenth shot, he having still two shots to spare, according to the terms of agreement. The barrel of the rifle used weighed but eleven and one-half pounds.
